Report on the annual accounts

Opinion

We have audited the annual accounts of Árima Real Estate SOCIMI, S.A. (the Company), which comprise the balance sheet as at 31 December 2024, and the income statement, statement of changes in equity, cash flow statement and related notes for the year then ended.

In our opinion, the accompanying annual accounts present fairly, in all material respects, the equity and financial position of the Company as at 31 December 2024, as well as its financial performance and cash flows for the year then ended, in accordance with the applicable financial reporting framework (as identified in note 2 of the notes to the annual accounts), and in particular, with the accounting principles and criteria included therein.

Basis for opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with legislation governing the audit practice in Spain. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's responsibilities for the audit of the annual accounts section of our report.

We are independent of the Company in accordance with the ethical requirements, including those relating to independence, that are relevant to our audit of the annual accounts in Spain, in accordance with legislation governing the audit practice. In this regard, we have not rendered services other than those relating to the audit of the accounts, and situations or circumstances have not arisen that, in accordance with the provisions of the aforementioned legislation, have affected our necessary independence such that it has been compromised.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Key audit matters

Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgment, were of most significance in our audit of the annual accounts of the current period. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the annual accounts as a whole, and in forming our opinion thereon, and we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters.

Valuation of investment properties
Investment properties make up 85% of the Company's assets. The Company values investment property at acquisition cost less the relevant depreciation and impairment losses, if any, as detailed in notes 3.2 and 6. Total investment properties recognised in non-current assets on the balance sheet amount to €268,642 thousand on 31 December 2024.	With respect to potential impairment losses, we obtained the valuation of investment properties carried out by Management's independent expert, on which we performed the following procedures: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Verification of the expert's competence, capacity and independence by obtaining confirmation and corroborating its professional standing in the market.
At the year end at least, the Company assesses whether there is any indication that any of its investment property may be impaired and specifically if there is any significant decrease in the asset's fair value or value in use. In 2024, the Company has recorded an impairment associated with its Investment Properties of €5,686 thousand.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Verification that the valuations were performed according to accepted methodology.
In order to consider the fair value of investment property, the Company bases itself on the valuations carried out by an independent expert. The valuations are performed in accordance with international standards, the methodology being described in notes 3.3 and 6 to the accompanying annual accounts.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Discussion of the principal key assumptions of the valuation through sundry meetings with the expert valuer and management, assessing the consistency of the main assumptions used taking existing market conditions into account.
Valuers consider specific variables such as the lease contracts signed and specifically its rents. Similarly, they apply certain key assumptions such as exit yields, estimated market rent and discount rates in order to arrive at a final valuation.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Performance of selective tests to corroborate the accuracy of the most relevant data provided by Management to the valuer and used by it in the valuations.
The Company recognizes depreciation on investment property on a straight-line basis, based on the estimated useful life included in note 3.2.	For a sample of additions of investment properties registered during the year, we have checked the supporting documentation.
The significance of the estimates and judgements involved in these valuations, coupled with a minor difference in percentage terms in the valuation of a property, could result in a material figure, meaning that the valuation of investment property is considered a key audit matter.	We verified that the useful life taken into account for each asset is appropriate with respect to its nature and we carried out tests on the arithmetic calculation of the depreciation charge for the year.
	Additionally, we assessed the sufficiency of the information disclosed in the consolidated annual accounts.
	The results of the procedures performed allowed us to reasonably obtain the audit objectives for which these procedures were designed.

Other information: Management report

Other information comprises only the management report for the 2024 financial year, the formulation of which is the responsibility of the Company's directors and does not form an integral part of the annual accounts.

Our audit opinion on the annual accounts does not cover the management report. Our responsibility regarding the management report, in accordance with legislation governing the audit practice, is to:

- a) Verify only that certain information included in the Annual Corporate Governance Report and the Annual Report on Directors' Remuneration, as referred to in the Auditing Act, have been provided in the manner required by applicable legislation and, if not, we are obliged to disclose that fact.
- b) Evaluate and report on the consistency between the rest of the information included in the management report and the annual accounts as a result of our knowledge of the Company obtained during the audit of the aforementioned financial statements, as well as to evaluate and report on whether the content and presentation of this part of the management report is in accordance with applicable regulations. If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that material misstatements exist, we are required to report that fact.

On the basis of the work performed, as described above, we have verified that the information mentioned in section a) above has been provided in the manner required by applicable legislation and that the rest of the information contained in the management report is consistent with that contained in the annual accounts for the 2024 financial year, and its content and presentation are in accordance with applicable regulations.

Responsibility of the directors and the audit and control committee for the annual accounts

The directors are responsible for the preparation of the accompanying annual accounts, such that they fairly present the equity, financial position and financial performance of the Company, in accordance with the financial reporting framework applicable to the entity in Spain, and for such internal control as the aforementioned directors determine is necessary to enable the preparation of annual accounts that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the annual accounts, the directors are responsible for assessing the Company's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless the directors either intend to liquidate the Company or to cease operations, or have no realistic alternative but to do so.

The audit and control committee is responsible for overseeing the process of preparation and presentation of the annual accounts.

Auditor's responsibilities for the audit of the annual accounts

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the annual accounts as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion.

Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with legislation governing the audit practice in Spain will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these annual accounts.

As part of an audit in accordance with legislation governing the audit practice in Spain, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional scepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the annual accounts, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by the directors.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of the directors' use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the annual accounts or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Company to cease to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the annual accounts, including the disclosures, and whether the annual accounts represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

We communicate with the entity's audit and control committee regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide the entity's audit and control committee with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements, including those relating to independence, and we communicate with the aforementioned those matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.

From the matters communicated with the entity's audit and control committee, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the annual accounts of the current period and are therefore the key audit matters.

We describe these matters in our auditor's report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter.

a) Regulatory regime

The Company is regulated under the Spanish Capital Companies Act.

In addition, on 27 September 2018 the Company informed the Tax Authorities that it wished to opt for application of the rules governing Spanish Real Estate Investment Trusts (SOCIMIs), and is therefore subject to Act 11 of 26 October, with the amendments introduced by Act 16 of 27 December, under which SOCIMIs are governed. Article 3 of Act 11 of 26 October, sets out certain requirements that must be met by this type of company, namely:

ÁRIMA REAL ESTATE SOCIMI, S.A.

- i) They must have invested at least 80% of the value of their assets in urban properties intended for lease, or in land for the development of properties that are to be used for the same purpose, provided that development begins within three years following its acquisition, or in equity investments in other companies, as set out in Article 2 section 1 of the aforementioned Act.
- ii) At least 80% of the income from the tax period corresponding to each year, excluding the income deriving from the transfer of ownership interests and real estate properties used by the Company to comply with its main corporate purpose, once the retention period referred to in the following paragraph has elapsed, must come from the lease of properties and from dividends or shares in profits associated with the aforementioned investments.
- iii) The real estate that makes up the Company's assets must remain leased for at least three years. For the purposes of the calculation, the time that the properties have been offered for lease will be added, with a maximum of one year.

The First Transitional Provision of the SOCIMI Act allows for application of the SOCIMI tax rules under the terms set out in Article 8 of the SOCIMI Act, even when the requirements it contains are not met on the date of incorporation, on the condition that these requirements are met during the two years following the date on which it is decided to opt for application of the said tax rules. In this regard, the Directors of the Company consider that the necessary requirements have already met within the established terms and periods, and they have therefore not entered any income or expense in respect of Corporate Income Tax.

The Company has been listed on the Spanish Stock Market since 23 October 2018, with its tax address at Serrano, 47 4^a floor, 28001 Madrid.

As indicated in Note 8, the Company is the parent of a Group of Companies (hereinafter referred to as the Group). The accompanying financial statements have been prepared on a non-consolidated basis. On February XX, 2025, the Company's Board of Directors prepared the consolidated financial statements of Árima Real Estate SOCIMI, S.A. and its subsidiaries as of December 31, 2024, which have been prepared in accordance with the international financial reporting standards adopted by the European Union (EU-IFRS), and which as of that date have consolidated equity and a negative consolidated profit of 262,181 thousand euros and 30,650 thousand euros, respectively.

The figures contained in these financial statements are expressed in thousand euros, unless otherwise indicated.

The Company's presentation and functional currency is the "euro".

2. BASES FOR THE PRESENTATION OF THE ANNUAL ACCOUNTS

- a) Fair presentations

The annual financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2024, were approved by the Board of Directors on XX February 2025, in accordance with the financial reporting regulatory framework applicable to the Company, which consists of:

ÁRIMA REAL ESTATE SOCIMI, S.A.

- a) The Spanish Commercial Code and all other corporate laws applicable in Spain.
- b) The General Accounting Plan approved by Royal Decree 1514/2007, of 16 November, and the amendments incorporated thereto by Royal Decree 1159/2010, of 17 September, Royal Decree 602/2016, of 2 December and Royal Decree 1/2021, of 12 January, described in section e) of this note and, likewise, sectoral adaptation for companies in the real estate sector.
- c) The mandatory standards approved by the Institute of Accounting and Auditing of Accounts and the relevant secondary legislation.
- d) All other applicable accounting laws in Spain.

The annual accounts for the financial year ended December 31, 2024, obtained from the Company's accounting records, are presented in accordance with the regulatory framework for financial reporting applicable to the Company and, specifically, with the accounting principles and standards set out therein and, therefore, faithfully present the company's equity, the Company's financial position and results of operations, as well as the veracity of cash flows incorporated in the statement of cash flows for the year ended December 31, 2024.

b) Non-mandatory accounting principles

There are no non-mandatory accounting principles that, if applied, would have had a significant effect on the preparation of the annual financial statements, that have been omitted.

c) Critical aspects of the valuation and estimation of uncertainty

The preparation of the annual financial statements requires the Company to make certain estimates and judgments regarding the future. These estimates are continuously evaluated and are based on historical experience and other factors, including expectations of future events that are considered reasonable under the current circumstances.

By definition, accounting estimates rarely match actual results exactly. Below are the key estimates and judgments that present a significant risk of resulting in a material adjustment to the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities within the next financial year.

In the preparation of the annual financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2024, the Company's Directors have made estimates to assess certain assets, liabilities, income, expenses, and commitments recorded therein. Essentially, these estimates relate to:

Fair value of investment properties

The Company's Directors assess the fair value of each property by considering the most recent independent valuations and determining the value of a property within an acceptable range of fair value estimates.

ÁRIMA REAL ESTATE SOCIMI, S.A.

The best evidence of the fair value of investment properties in an active market is the price of similar assets. The Company determines fair value using a range of reasonable values. In making this judgment, the Company relies on a variety of sources, including:

- i. Current prices in an active market for properties of different nature, condition or location, adjusted to reflect differences with the assets owned by the Company.
- ii. Recent property prices in other, less active markets, adjusted to reflect change in economic conditions since the date of the transaction.
- iii. Discounted cash flow models based on estimates derived from the conditions of existing lease agreements, and where possible, market price evidence of similar properties in the same location, applying discount rates that reflect the time-related uncertainty.

Useful lives of investment properties

The Company's Management determines the estimated useful lives and the corresponding depreciation charges for investment properties. The useful lives of investment properties are estimated based on the period during which the assets under this category are expected to generate economic benefits. The Company reviews the useful lives of investment properties at each year-end, and if the estimates differ from previous assessments, the effect of the change is accounted for prospectively from the financial year in which the change is made.

Cash flow hedges

The effective portion of changes in the fair value of derivatives designated and qualifying as cash flow hedges is recognized in the statement of recognized income and expenses. The gain or loss related to the ineffective portion is immediately recognized in the income statement under the heading "Changes in the Fair Value of Financial Instruments".

Amounts accumulated in equity are reclassified to the income statement in the periods when the hedged item affects earnings (e.g., when the forecasted hedged sale takes place). The gain or loss related to the effective portion of interest rate swaps hedging variable-rate loans is recognized in the income statement under "Financial Income or Expenses". However, when the forecasted hedged transaction results in the recognition of a non-financial asset (e.g., inventory or property, plant, and equipment), the previously deferred gains and losses in equity are transferred from equity and included in the initial cost valuation of the asset. The deferred amounts are ultimately recorded in cost of goods sold, in the case of inventory, or in depreciation, in the case of property, plant, and equipment.

When a hedging instrument matures or is sold, or when it no longer meets the hedge accounting requirements, any accumulated gain or loss in equity up to that point remains in equity and is recognized in the income statement when the forecasted transaction finally occurs. If the forecasted transaction is no longer expected to take place, the accumulated gain or loss in equity is immediately transferred to the income statement.

ÁRIMA REAL ESTATE SOCIMI, S.A.

Income tax

The Company is subject to the regulatory framework established in Law 11/2009 of October 26, which governs Listed Real Estate Investment Companies (SOCIMIs). In practice, this means that, provided certain requirements are met, the Company is subject to a 0% corporate income tax rate. The amendment introduced by Law 11/2021 imposes a 15% tax on undistributed profits not paid out as dividends; however, this provision does not apply to the Company for the financial year ended December 31, 2024.

The Company's Directors monitor compliance with the requirements established in the legislation in order to safeguard the tax advantages established therein. In this sense, the Directors' estimate is that these requirements are met in the terms and deadlines set, and it is not appropriate to record any type of result derived from the Income Tax.

While these estimates were prepared on the basis of the best information available at the end of FY2024, future developments may lead to a change in these estimates (upward or downward) in the future. Changes in accounting estimates will be applied prospectively.

d) Grouped entries

To facilitate understanding of the balance sheet and the income statement, the entries in these annual accounts are presented in grouped form, and the necessary analysis is set out in the relevant notes to the accounts.

e) Comparison of information

For comparative purposes, the balance sheet, income statement, cash flow statement, statement of changes in equity and notes to the financial statements for the year ended 31 December 2024 are presented comparatively with information relating to the year ended 31 December 2023.

f) Working capital

These Financial Statements have been prepared in accordance with the going concern principle, which assumes that the Company will realize its assets and settle its liabilities in the normal course of its operations.

The Company's working capital as of December 31, 2024, is negative by 7,716 thousand euros, due to a temporary situation caused by ongoing works on an asset that is not generating income. As detailed in Note 14, the Company has a credit line of up to 16,000 thousand euros, maturing in 2028, which will be used in 2025 if necessary to meet its obligations.

3. ACCOUNTING CRITERIA

The main accounting policies adopted in the preparation of the annual accounts are described below. These policies have been applied uniformly for the financial year presented, unless otherwise indicated.

ÁRIMA REAL ESTATE SOCIMI, S.A.

NOTES TO THE ANNUAL ACCOUNTS FOR THE FINANCIAL YEAR ENDED ON 31 DECEMBER 2024

3.1 Property, plant and equipment

Items of property, plant and equipment are recognized at their acquisition price or cost of production less accumulated depreciation and the accumulated amount of recognized losses.

The costs of major repairs are activated and amortized over the estimated useful life of the repairs, while recurring maintenance expenses are charged to the profit and loss account during the year in which they are incurred.

The depreciation of property, plant and equipment, with the exception of land, which is not depreciated, is systematically calculated by the straight-line method according to its estimated useful life, taking into account the depreciation actually suffered by its operation, use and enjoyment. The depreciation percentages corresponding to the estimated useful lives are:

	% amortization
Other facilities	10%
Furniture	10%
Information processing equipment	25%
Transport elements	25%
Other fixed assets	10%

3.2 Investment properties

Investment properties include the value of land, office buildings, and logistics buildings, either for the purpose of generating rental income or capital appreciation.

These assets are initially recognized at acquisition price or production cost and are subsequently reduced by accumulated depreciation and recognized impairment losses.

Maintenance and repair expenses related to investment properties are recognized in the income statement in the period in which they are incurred. However, improvement costs that result in increased capacity, efficiency, or an extension of the useful lives of the assets are capitalized.

For non-current assets that require more than twelve months to be made ready for their intended use, capitalized costs include borrowing costs incurred before the assets are ready for use, which have been charged by the supplier or are related to loans or other borrowed funds, whether specifically or generally obtained, and directly attributable to the acquisition of assets.

The Company depreciates its investment property using the straight-line method at annual rates based on the years of estimated useful life of the assets as follows:

	% amortization
Constructions	2%
Technical installations	8%

ÁRIMA REAL ESTATE SOCIMI, S.A.

NOTES TO THE ANNUAL ACCOUNTS FOR THE FINANCIAL YEAR ENDED ON 31 DECEMBER 2024

Assets under construction intended for rental for purposes not yet specified are accounted for at cost less recognized impairment losses. The amortization of these assets, like that of other real estate assets, begins when the assets are ready for the use for which they were designed.

3.3 Impairment losses on non-financial assets

Assets subject to depreciation are subject to impairment loss tests whenever an event or change in circumstances indicates that the carrying amount may not be recoverable.

An impairment loss is recognised for the excess between the carrying amount of the asset over its recoverable amount, understood as the fair value of the asset less costs to sell or the value in use, whichever is greater.

For the purpose of assessing impairment losses, assets are grouped at the lowest level for which there are separately identifiable cash flows (cash-generating units). Non-financial assets, other than goodwill, that have suffered an impairment loss are subject to revisions at each balance sheet date in case there have been reversals of the loss.

The Company engages independent experts, CBRE Valuation Advisory, S.A., to determine the value of all its real estate investments on a semi-annual basis. These valuations are carried out in accordance with the valuation and valuation standards issued by the Royal Institute of Chartered Surveyors (RICS) in the United Kingdom and by the International Valuation Standards (IVS) formulated by the International Valuation Standards Committee (IVSC).

To calculate the value of the real estate investments, the amount that the Company expects to recover through the lease is taken into consideration. To this end, cash flow projections generated on the basis of the best estimate of lease fees are used, based on expectations for each asset and taking into account any uncertainties that could lead to a reduction in cash flows or the discount rate.

The value in use of real estate does not have to be identical to its fair value because the former is due to factors specific to the entity, mainly the ability to impose prices above or below market levels due to the assumption of different risks or the contraction of costs (construction or marketing, in ongoing real estate investments; reforms; maintenance, etc.) different from those linked to companies in the sector in general, and the second corresponds to the value at which two independent parties would be willing to carry out a transaction.

The estimated returns depend on the type, age, and location of the properties. The properties have been valued individually, considering each of the lease agreements in effect at the end of the period and, where applicable, the expected ones.

The carrying amount of the Company's investment properties is adjusted at the end of each financial year by recognizing the corresponding impairment loss to align it with the recoverable amount when the fair value is lower than the carrying amount.

ÁRIMA REAL ESTATE SOCIMI, S.A.

When an impairment loss is subsequently reversed, the carrying amount of the asset is increased to the revised estimate of its recoverable amount, provided that the increased carrying amount does not exceed the carrying amount that would have been determined had no impairment loss been recognized in previous years. The reversal of an impairment loss is recognized in the income statement.

3.4 Financial assets

Financial assets at amortized cost

Financial assets measured at amortized cost are non-derivative financial assets with fixed or determinable payments that are not quoted in an active market. They are classified as current assets, except for those with maturities exceeding 12 months from the balance sheet date, which are classified as non-current assets. Financial assets measured at amortized cost are included under "Long-term financial investments," "Loans to group companies," "Loans to third parties" and "Other financial assets" in the non-current assets section of the balance sheet, and under "Trade receivables and other accounts receivable" in the current assets section of the balance sheet.

These financial assets are initially measured at their fair value, including directly attributable transaction costs, and subsequently at amortized cost, recognizing accrued interest based on their effective interest rate. The effective interest rate is understood as the discount rate that equates the carrying amount of the instrument with the total estimated cash flows until maturity. However, trade receivables from commercial transactions with a maturity not exceeding one year are measured at their nominal value, both at initial recognition and subsequently, provided that the effect of not discounting the cash flows is not significant.

At least at the end of the financial year, the necessary impairment allowances are made if there is objective evidence that not all the amounts owed will be collected.

The amount of impairment loss is the difference between the carrying amount of the asset and the present value of the estimated future cash flows, discounted at the effective interest rate at the time of initial recognition. Value adjustments, as well as their reversal, where appropriate, are recognized in the income statement.

Financial assets at cost

Financial assets at cost are included in "Loans to companies", "Investments in equity instruments of group companies" and "Other long-term financial assets" in the non-current assets of the balance sheet, and in "Other short-term financial assets" in the Current assets of the balance sheet.

They are measured at cost less, where applicable, the cumulative amount of impairment allowances. If there is objective evidence that the carrying amount is not recoverable, the appropriate valuation adjustments are made for the difference between its carrying amount and the recoverable amount, understood as the greater of its fair value less costs to sell and the present value of the cash flows derived from the investment.

ÁRIMA REAL ESTATE SOCIMI, S.A.

Unless there is better evidence of the recoverable amount, the estimation of the impairment of these investments takes into account the equity of the investee company corrected for the tacit capital gains existing at the valuation date. The value adjustment and, where appropriate, its reversal are recorded in the profit and loss account for the year in which it occurs.

3.5 Equity

The share capital is represented by ordinary shares.

The costs of issuing new shares or options are presented directly in equity as a reduction in reserves.

In the case of the acquisition of the Company's own shares, the consideration paid, including any directly attributable incremental costs, is deducted from equity until its cancellation, reissue or disposal. When these shares are subsequently sold or reissued, any amount received, net of any directly attributable incremental transaction costs, is included in equity.

Distribution of profit and mandatory dividend payment

SOCIMIs are governed by the special tax regime established in Law 11/2009 of October 26, as amended by Law 16/2012 of December 27 and subsequent modifications, which regulate Listed Real Estate Investment Companies. They are required to distribute their profits to shareholders in the form of dividends, once the corresponding commercial obligations have been fulfilled. The distribution of profits must be agreed upon within six months following the end of each financial year, as follows:

- a) 100% of the profits derived from dividends or profit shares distributed by the entities referred to in Article 2(1) of this Law.
- b) At least 50% of the profits from the sale of real estate and shares or interests referred to in Article 2(1) of this Law, provided that the sales occur after the holding periods established in Article 3(3) of this Law, and the assets are used to fulfil the company's main corporate purpose. The remainder of these profits must be reinvested in other properties or shareholdings that serve the same purpose within three years from the date of the sale. If reinvestment does not take place, these profits must be fully distributed along with any profits from the financial year in which the reinvestment period ends. If the reinvested assets are sold before the required holding period, those profits must be fully distributed along with the corresponding portion of profits attributable to financial years in which the company was not subject to the special tax regime established by this Law.
- c) At least 80% of the remaining profits obtained.

The dividend must be paid within one month of the date of the distribution resolution. When the distribution of dividends is made against reserves from profits of a year in which the special tax regime has been applied, their distribution shall be mandatorily adopted with the agreement referred to in the previous paragraph.

ÁRIMA REAL ESTATE SOCIMI, S.A.

NOTES TO THE ANNUAL ACCOUNTS FOR THE FINANCIAL YEAR ENDED ON 31 DECEMBER 2024

The Company is obliged to allocate 10% of the profits for the year to the constitution of the legal reserve, until it reaches 20% of the share capital. This reserve, as long as it does not exceed the limit of 20% of the share capital, is not distributable to shareholders. The articles of association of these companies may not establish any other reservation of an unavailable nature other than the above.

3.6 Financial liabilities

Financial liabilities at amortized cost

This category includes debits for commercial operations and debits for non-commercial operations. These third-party resources are classified as current liabilities, unless the Company has an unconditional right to defer their settlement for at least 12 months after the balance sheet date.

These debts are initially recognised at fair value adjusted for directly attributable transaction costs, including fees associated with financing, and are subsequently recognised at their amortised cost according to the effective interest rate method. Such effective interest is the discount rate that equals the carrying amount of the instrument with the expected flow of expected future payments until the maturity of the liability.

However, debits for commercial transactions with a maturity of no more than one year and which do not have a contractual interest rate are measured, both initially and subsequently, at their nominal value when the effect of not discounting cash flows is not significant.

On the other hand, it includes financial debts, which are initially recognised at fair value less the transaction costs incurred. Subsequently, financial debts are valued at their amortized cost; Any difference between the funds raised (net of the costs required to raise them) and the redemption value is recognised in the income statement over the life of the debt in accordance with the effective interest rate method.

3.7 Current and deferred income tax

Following the special SOCIMI regime, the Company is subject to Corporate Income Tax at a 0% rate.

As established in Article 9.2 of Law 11/2009 of October 26, as amended by Law 16/2012 of December 27 and subsequent modifications, the Company is subject to a special tax of 19% on the total amount of dividends or profit shares distributed to shareholders whose ownership in the Company's share capital is equal to or greater than 5%, provided that such dividends, at the shareholder's level, are exempt or subject to a tax rate lower than 10% (for this purpose, the amount payable under the Non-Resident Income Tax Law will be taken into account).

However, this special tax will not apply when dividends or profit shares are received by entities whose corporate purpose is to hold equity interests in other SOCIMIs or in other non-resident entities with the same corporate purpose that are subject to a regulatory framework similar to that established for SOCIMIs concerning the mandatory, legal, or statutory profit distribution policy, as long as those shareholders hold an ownership interest equal to or greater than 5% in the share capital of such entities and are subject to a tax rate of at least 10% on those dividends or profit shares.

ÁRIMA REAL ESTATE SOCIMI, S.A.

Additionally, as detailed in the amendments introduced by Law 11/2021 of July 9, the entity is subject to a special tax of 15% on the portion of undistributed profits for the financial year that originates from income that has not been subject to the general corporate income tax rate, nor qualifies for the reinvestment period regulated in Article 6(1)(b) of this Law. This tax will be considered a Corporate Income Tax liability.

The Company's Directors monitor compliance with the legal requirements to maintain the tax advantages established in the applicable regulations. In this regard, the Directors estimate that these requirements are being met within the specified terms and deadlines, and therefore, no Corporate Income Tax expense has been recorded.

3.8 Provisions and contingent liabilities

Provisions are recognised when the Company has a present obligation, whether legal or implied, as a result of past events, it is likely that an outflow of resources will be necessary to settle the obligation, and the amount can be reliably estimated. No provisions are recognized for future operating losses.

Provisions are measured at the present value of the disbursements expected to be necessary to settle the obligation using a pre-tax rate that reflects current market assessments of the time value of money and the specific risks of the obligation. Adjustments in the provision due to its updating are recognized as a financial expense as they are accrued.

Provisions with a maturity of less than or equal to one year with a non-significant financial effect are not discounted.

Where part of the disbursement required to settle the provision is expected to be reimbursed by a third party, the repayment is recognised as a separate asset, provided that its receipt is virtually certain.

Contingent liabilities are considered to be those possible obligations arising as a result of past events whose materialization is conditional on the occurrence or not of one or more future events independent of the Company's will. These contingent liabilities are not subject to accounting records, and details of them are presented in the report (Note 18).

3.9 Revenue Recognition

Revenue is recorded at the fair value of the consideration to be received and represents the amounts receivable for services rendered in the ordinary course of the Company's activities, net of returns, rebates, discounts, and value-added tax.

Provision of services

The regulatory framework is based on the principle that revenue is recognised when control of a good or service is transferred to the customer in an amount that reflects the consideration to which the entity expects to be received. Thus, the concept of control, as a fundamental principle, replaced the previous concept of risks and rewards.

ÁRIMA REAL ESTATE SOCIMI, S.A.

NOTES TO THE ANNUAL ACCOUNTS FOR THE FINANCIAL YEAR ENDED ON 31 DECEMBER 2024

In order to apply the above fundamental principle, the following successive steps must be followed:

- identify contracts with customers;
- identify the performance obligations;
- determine the price or consideration for the contract transaction;
- allocate the transaction price among the performance obligations, and
- recognize revenue when (or as) the entity satisfies each obligation committed.

The Company provides rental services. According to the analysis carried out by the Directorate, all the income comes from the rentals of the properties that are registered under the heading "Real estate investments" under the classification of operating leases. Such income is recognised on the basis of its accrual and compliance with the obligation of use, with the benefits in terms of incentives and the initial costs of the leases being distributed linearly.

The costs related to each of the lease fees, including impairment losses, are recognized as an expense.

3.10 Leases

a) When the Company is the lessee – Operating lease

Leases in which the lessor retains a significant portion of the risks and benefits arising from ownership are classified as operating leases. Operating lease payments (net of any incentives received from the lessor) are charged to the income statement for the period in which they are accrued on a straight-line basis during the lease period.

b) When the Company is the lessor

Properties leased under operating leases are included as investment property in the balance sheet. Rental income is recognized on a straight-line basis over the lease term.

3.11 Functional and presentation currency

These annual financial statements are presented in thousand euros, which is the Company's functional and presentation currency.

3.12 Related-Party Transactions

As a general rule, related-party transactions are initially recorded at their fair value. If the agreed price differs from fair value, the difference is recognized based on the economic substance of the transaction. Subsequent measurement is carried out in accordance with the applicable regulations.

ÁRIMA REAL ESTATE SOCIMI, S.A.

NOTES TO THE ANNUAL ACCOUNTS FOR THE FINANCIAL YEAR ENDED ON 31 DECEMBER 2024

3.13 Employee benefits

a) Share-based payments

On 26 September 2018, the General Meeting of Shareholders approved a share-based compensation granted to the Árima Real Estate team, which was ratified at the General Meeting of Shareholders held on 5 November 2019 and subsequently amended and corroborated at the General Meeting of Shareholders on 29 June 2021. This Remuneration Policy replaced in all its terms the Remuneration Policy approved on 21 March 2019 and amended on 5 November 2019. The aforementioned proposal, the full text of which is published on the Company's website, mainly modifies the aspects of the Remuneration Policy in relation to the following points:

- i. Modification of the defined terms and calculation formula given the Company's growth phase, the impact that capital increases may have on the calculation of shareholder return over a period is introduced into the formula.
- ii. Modification of the minimum compliance thresholds: 8% instead of 10%, and inclusion of the "watermark" concept (minimum profitability to be considered in the calculation of shareholder return, establishing a floor for subsequent periods, preventing a fall in the market in one period from leading to an increase in profitability in the following period).
- iii. Modification of the lock-up procedure for the delivery of accrued shares: beneficiaries must continue to be employees of the Company at the end of each lock-up period to receive the accrued shares.

b) Short-term obligations and bonuses

Liabilities for salaries and wages expected to be settled within 12 months after the end of the financial year in which employees render the corresponding services are recognized in the reporting period and measured at the amounts expected to be paid when the liabilities are settled. These liabilities are presented in the balance sheet as current employee benefit obligations.

c) Severance payments

Termination benefits are paid to employees as a result of the Company's decision to terminate their employment contract before the normal retirement age or when the employee agrees to resign voluntarily in exchange for these benefits. The Company recognises these benefits when it is demonstrably committed to terminating the employees' employment in accordance with a detailed formal plan, without the possibility of withdrawal. Benefits that will not be paid within twelve months of the balance sheet date are discounted to their present value.

3.14 Cash and other cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents include cash on hand, demand deposits with credit institutions, other highly liquid short-term investments with an original maturity of three months or less.

3.15 Derivatives and hedging financial instruments

Financial derivatives are measured at fair value, both at initial recognition and in subsequent valuations. The method of recognizing the resulting gains or losses depends on whether the derivative has been designated as a hedging instrument and, if so, on the type of hedge. The Company designates certain derivatives as:

ÁRIMA REAL ESTATE SOCIMI, S.A.

NOTES TO THE ANNUAL ACCOUNTS FOR THE FINANCIAL YEAR ENDED ON 31 DECEMBER 2024

Cash flow hedge

The effective portion of changes in the fair value of derivatives designated and qualifying as cash flow hedges is temporarily recognized in equity. It is transferred to the income statement in the periods when the hedged forecasted transaction affects profit or loss, unless the hedge relates to a forecasted transaction that results in the recognition of a non-financial asset or liability. In such cases, amounts previously recorded in equity are included in the cost of the asset when acquired or the liability when assumed. The gain or loss related to the ineffective portion is immediately recognized in the income statement.

4. FINANCIAL RISK MANAGEMENT

The Company's activities are exposed to various financial risks, including market risk (interest rate risk), credit risk, liquidity risk, tax risk, and other risks. The Company's overall risk management program focuses on the uncertainty of financial markets and seeks to minimize potential adverse effects on its financial profitability.

Risk management is controlled by the Company's Finance Department, which identifies, evaluates, and hedges financial risks in accordance with policies approved by the Board of Directors. The Board provides policies for managing overall risk, as well as specific areas such as interest rate risk, liquidity risk, the use of derivatives and non-derivatives, and the investment of excess liquidity.

a) Market risk

The Company's interest rate risk arises from financial debt. Loans issued at variable rates expose the Company to cash flow interest rate risk. During the financial year ended December 31, 2024, no new bank financing was formalized in addition to the existing agreements. The financing agreements with variable interest rates are referenced to the EURIBOR plus a market spread ranging between 1.40% and 1.90%. As of December 31, 2024, the nominal amount drawn under these variable interest rate financing contracts amounts to 60,217 thousand euros (64,805 thousand euros as of December 31, 2023).

The Company analyses interest rate risk exposure dynamically. Various scenarios are simulated, taking into account financing and hedging alternatives. Based on these scenarios, the Company calculates the impact on results for a given change in interest rates (scenarios are used only for liabilities that represent the most significant positions subject to interest rate risk).

These analyses take into account:

- The economic environment in which the Company operates: different economic scenarios are designed by modifying key variables that may affect the Company (interest rates, share price, occupancy rate of investment properties, etc.).
- Identification of those interdependent variables and their level of correlation.
- Time frame in which the assessment is being carried out: the time horizon of the analysis and its possible deviations will be taken into account.

ÁRIMA REAL ESTATE SOCIMI, S.A.

Based on the different scenarios, the Company manages its cash flow interest rate risk using interest rate swaps that convert variable-rate loans into fixed-rate loans. These interest rate swaps have the economic effect of transforming variable-rate borrowings into fixed-rate borrowings. Generally, the Company secures long-term financing at variable interest rates and swaps them for a lower fixed rate than would be available if the Company had directly obtained fixed-rate financing. Under these interest rate swaps, the Company commits to third parties to periodically exchange the difference between fixed and variable interest rates, calculated based on the contracted notional principals.

b) Credit risk

Credit risk mainly arises from tenants of investment properties, as well as from various debtors. The Company evaluates and establishes the required creditworthiness of its clients by considering their financial position, past experience, and other factors. The Company considers that it does not have significant concentrations of credit risk, this being understood as the impact that a default on receivables could have on the income statement, given the credit quality of its tenants.

The Company maintains its cash and cash equivalents in institutions with the highest credit quality.

c) Liquidity risk

The Company's Finance Department carries out cash flow forecasting. It monitors the Company's liquidity needs to ensure it has sufficient cash to meet operational requirements while maintaining adequate liquidity at all times to prevent the Company from defaulting on its financial obligations.

d) Tax risk

As mentioned in Note 1, the Company is subject to the special tax regime for Listed Real Estate Investment Companies (SOCIMI). According to Article 6 of Law 11/2009 of October 26, as amended by Law 16/2012 of December 27, companies that opt for this regime are required to distribute their earnings to shareholders in the form of dividends, once the corresponding corporate obligations have been met. This distribution must be agreed upon within six months after the end of the financial year and must be paid within the following month. Additionally, as detailed in the amendments introduced by Law 11/2021 of July 9, the entity is subject to a special 15% tax on the portion of profits that is not distributed.

If the General Shareholders' Meeting of these companies does not approve the dividend distribution proposed by the Board of Directors, which has been calculated in accordance with the legal requirements mentioned above, the Company would be in breach of these requirements and would therefore be subject to the general tax regime instead of the special SOCIMI regime.

g) Valuation process

The following provides information on the cost and fair value of investment properties as of December 31, 2024, and December 31, 2023:

	Thousands euros
	December 31, 2024		December 31, 2023
	Net book value	Fair value	Net book value	Fair value
Investment properties	268,642	304,122	272,213	311,042

The valuations of these real estate assets have been carried out under the "market value" hypothesis, in accordance with the Professional Standards of the Royal Institution of Chartered Surveyors (RICS) "Red Book" from January 2022. The market value of the properties owned by the Company has been determined based on valuations conducted by independent valuation experts (CBRE Valuation Advisory, S.A.) except for the purchase option which was formalized for an initial amount of 2,142 thousand euros for the purchase of an office property in the M30-A2 business urban axis, maturing on 30 June 2025.

Market value is defined as the estimated amount for which an asset should be exchanged on the valuation date between a willing seller and a willing buyer, following a reasonable marketing period, with both parties acting knowledgeably, prudently, and without any coercion.

The valuation methodology adopted by independent valuers to determine fair value was primarily the 10-year discounted cash flow (DCF) method, while also cross-checking the information with comparable data. The residual value at the end of year 10 is calculated by applying an exit yield (Cap rate) to the projected net income of year 11. The cash flows are discounted at an internal rate of return (IRR) to determine the net present value. This IRR is adjusted to reflect the investment risk and the assumptions made. The key variables are therefore rental income and exit yield.

Estimated returns and discount rates depend on the type, age, and location of the properties. Each property has been individually valued, taking into account all lease agreements in force at the end of the financial year and, where applicable, anticipated leases. The valuations are based on current market rents for different areas, supported by comparable transactions and actual market transactions.

In relation to the financing of real estate investments, the Company entered into three interest rate hedging transactions, two of which remain effective at the end of the current fiscal year. Additionally, there are two implicit interest rate hedging transactions associated with the financing of certain assets. The valuation of these swaps as of December 31, 2024, is 2,011 thousand euros (4,055 thousand euros as of December 31, 2023).

The fair value of a hedging derivative is classified as a non-current asset or liability if the remaining maturity of the hedged item exceeds 12 months and as a current asset or liability if the remaining maturity of the hedged item is less than 12 months.

Cash flow hedging through interest rate swaps (financial swap) allows for the exchange of variable interest rate debt for fixed interest rate debt, where the future cash flows to be hedged are the future interest payments on the loans contracted. Changes in the fair value of the derivatives are reflected in the "Hedging reserve" within equity (Note 12).

ÁRIMA REAL ESTATE SOCIMI, S.A.

Regarding implicit interest rate hedging transactions, financial institutions, in order to determine the fixed interest rate, refer to a swap in which a fixed interest rate is exchanged for a variable interest rate, with an amortization schedule similar to that of the financing. This swap is financially equivalent to a transaction where the borrower would have simultaneously contracted with the lender a swap like the one described, along with financing with the same characteristics as the loan but with a variable interest rate. Therefore, since the implicit derivatives are closely related to the financing contracts, they are not reflected in the financial statements.

17. TAX ON PROFITS AND TAX SITUATION

The reconciliation between the net amount of income and expenses for the financial year and the taxable base of the Corporate Income Tax is as follows:

As of December 31, 2024

	Thousand euros
	Profit and loss account			Income and expenses charged directly to Equity
	Increases	Decreases	Total	Increases	Decreases	Total

Taxable base (tax result)	16,752	(29,312)	(12,560)	5,877	(3,272)	2,605

The increases in "Permanent differences" affecting the 'Income Statement' are mainly due to the amount of severance payments accrued during the year that are not tax-deductible according to Article 15.i) of Law 27/2014, of November 27, of the Corporate Tax Law. As for the increases in permanent differences affecting "Income and expenses directly to Equity", it refers to the impact against "Reserves" due to the capital reduction through "Treasury shares" detailed in Note 11.

*Note 16.

When reading this note, it should be taken into account that the Company is subject to the special SOCIMI regime, and no deferred tax assets have been recognized, as they are not expected to be fiscally recoverable.

As of December 31, 2024, tax benefits are calculated as the accounting losses for the year plus, primarily, reversals of impairment and changes in the fair value of hedging derivatives recognized directly in equity. As of the closing date, the Company has not recognized a deferred tax asset in this regard. No advance payments of corporate income tax were made during the 2024 or 2023 financial years.

In accordance with Law 11/2009 of October 26, as amended by Law 16/2012 of December 27 and Law 11/2021 of June 30, which regulate SOCIMIs, the current corporate income tax is calculated by applying a 0% tax rate to the taxable base. Withholdings and advance payments amount to 0 thousand euros.

Tax inspections

Under current legislation, taxes cannot be considered definitively settled until the tax authorities have reviewed the tax returns filed or until the four-year statute of limitations period has expired. All tax years affecting the Company remain open to inspection.

As a result of, among other factors, the different possible interpretations of current tax legislation, additional liabilities may arise as a result of an inspection. However, the Company's Directors believe that such liabilities, if any, would not significantly impact the balance sheet and income statement for the financial years ended December 31, 2024, or December 31, 2023.

MANAGEMENT REPORT FOR THE YEAR ENDED 2024

1. ORGANIZATION STRUCTURE AND FUNCTIONING

Árima Real Estate SOCIMI, S.A. (hereinafter Árima, or the Company or the dominant Company) is the dominant Company of a Group whose main objective is the creation of a real estate portfolio focused mainly on the office and logistics sector in Madrid, with the aim of obtaining income from rents through an active management of the assets. The ultimate goal is to create value for shareholders, offer the best quality spaces for tenants and ensure the construction of a sustainable and technologically advanced environment.

The Company's strategy responds, with a clear focus on value creation, to the lack of quality (Class A) and environmentally friendly office space. Relying on the competitive advantage of its highly experienced team, it is able to identify excellent investment opportunities to reposition assets through intelligent refurbishments.

Árima is built on the proven experience of the members of its management team who bring, on average, two decades in the real estate sector and several years of experience working together on different projects. Their deep knowledge of the sector together with corporate values such as transparency, excellence, sustainable profitability and tangible revaluation make Árima capable of repeating success stories and overcoming previous projects. In addition, the team maintains a strong alignment with the interests of its shareholders thanks to its significant shareholding.

JSS Real Estate SOCIMI, S.A. launched a takeover bid for Árima on 16 May at a price of €8.61/share. The Offer was accepted by the shareholders holding 25,807,076 Árima shares representing 99.56% of its share capital following the capital reduction carried out during the year ended 31 December 2024 (Note 11 to these Financial Statements). The takeover bid was successfully completed in November. JSS Real Estate SOCIMI, S.A. is the new majority shareholder of Árima, and a reverse merger is expected in the first half of 2025.

Árima has a suitable governmental structure that guarantees the proper functioning of the governing bodies and compliance with the standards and regulations governing its activity.

MANAGEMENT REPORT FOR THE YEAR ENDED 2024

2. EVOLUTION AND RESULTS OF BUSINESS

Since its IPO in October 2018, the Company has made several acquisitions and disposals of real estate assets. During financial year 2024, Árima made an additional disbursement of 3,125 thousand euros for the turnkey project formalised in 2020. With this transaction, ownership of the asset is acquired, allowing greater control over the project to adapt it to the needs of demand in the area. The property is located at street Manoteras, 28 and will include an office building with a surface area of 12,842 sqm and 241 parking spaces.

These investments have resulted in the composition of a diversified portfolio, consisting of 8 assets plus right to purchase for an additional asset located in the urban business axis M30-A2 with a surface area of 11,600 sqm and 167 parking spaces, formalised in 2023 for an initial value of 2,142 thousand euros. These assets provide stability and high growth potential and bring the market value of the portfolio at 31 December 2024 to 301,900 thousand euros (31 December 2023: 308,900 thousand euros).

This negative variation is mainly driven by the changes that have taken place in the office real estate sector over the last few years. Since 2020, the pandemic brought about by the COVID virus raised doubts about the need for office space. Over time, companies mostly established hybrid calendars that mix face-to-face and remote working. More recently, many have returned to a 100% face-to-face situation. However, there has been a noticeable shift in demand for space, with companies now seeking more central office locations and higher quality facilities. While the majority of Árima's portfolio is comprised of Class A assets, or with the potential to be Class A and with the highest quality standards, the location of most of these buildings is in well-established but secondary office areas.

Despite the current market situation, Árima consolidated its solid strategy and defensive portfolio in 2024 thanks to quality tenants and active portfolio management. Annualised gross rental income amounted to €12m at the end of the year.

ÁRIMA REAL ESTATE SOCIMI, S.A.

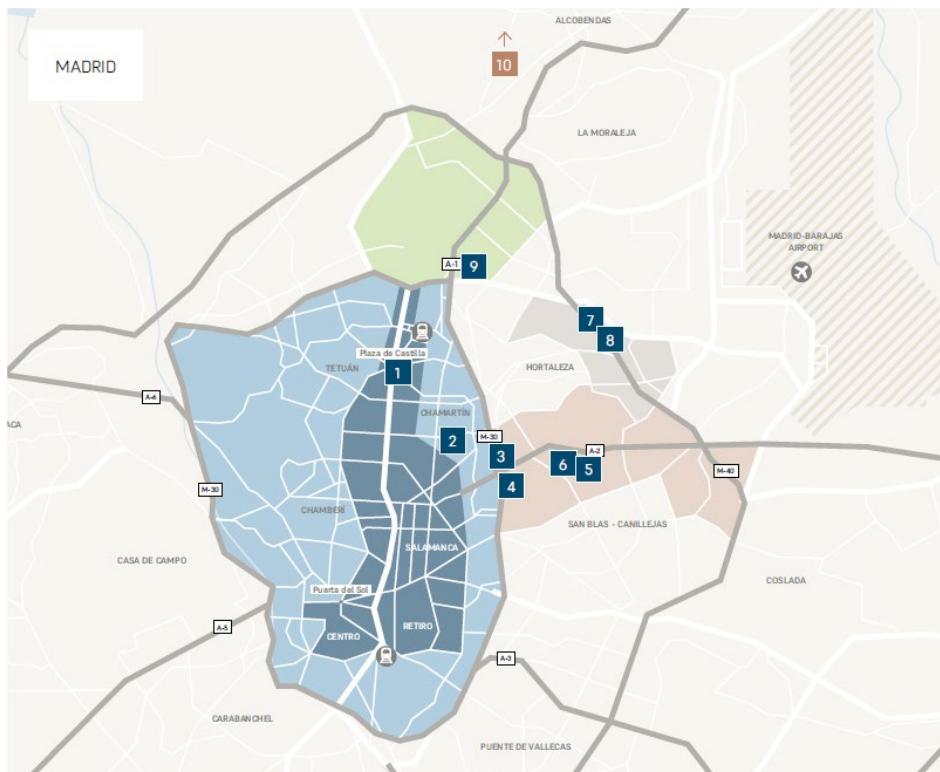

MANAGEMENT REPORT FOR THE YEAR ENDED 2024

At year-end, the portfolio totalled 96,576 sqm of leasable space and 1,360 parking spaces². The properties are in line with the listed company's investment model. They make up a balanced portfolio of rental assets and buildings with high appreciation potential for the SOCIMI's shareholders, always seeking a product with great potential to generate value in highly consolidated areas of the metropolitan area and the outskirts of Madrid, as shown in the following map.

The properties that currently make up the portfolio are the following³:

Leverage (Loan to Value)

The leverage figure reflects the % of debt over the market value of the assets in the portfolio. Management monitors this ratio in order to assess the appropriate level of indebtedness of the Company. The calculation is made by dividing the debt drawn down in nominal terms at 31 December by the market value of the portfolio at the same date.

	31/12/2024	31/12/2023
Investment Properties	268,642	272,213
Nominal debt	100,377	112,276
LTV	37%	41%

Net debt

This ratio is calculated by subtracting cash and cash equivalents at 31 December from the amount of debt drawn down in nominal terms at that date. Management considers this to be relevant for the analysis of net effective debt.

	31/12/2024	31/12/2023
Nominal debt	100,377	112,364
Cash and banks	5,035	7,060

9. RISK MANAGEMENT

Árima is subject to a wide range of regulations and good practices in compliance and reporting. In response to these requirements, the Company has carried out an analysis and adaptation of the following Risk Management Systems:

- Risk Management System, defined and developed through the Risk Management Policy and Manual, in order to establish the basic principles, key risk factors and the general framework of action for the control and management of all types of risks faced by the Company (Compliance, Environment, Sustainability, Strategic, Financial and Operational).
- Criminal Compliance Policy, which defines the main guidelines of the Crime Prevention and Detection Model (CPDM), which are developed in the Management Manual issued for this purpose.
- Management Manual of the Internal Control over Financial Reporting System (ICFRS) with the objective of establishing the basis for the maintenance, review, reporting and supervision of the ICFR, ensuring that risks due to errors, omissions or fraud in financial information are adequately controlled, either by prevention, detection, mitigation, compensation or correction, providing assurance that internal controls operate effectively and contribute to ensuring the reliability of the Company's financial information.

In order to:

- Comply with applicable regulations.
- Benefit from models adapted to Árima's specific characteristics.
- Aid decision-making internally and with third parties through the reporting of these areas.

The Board of Directors considers risk management and internal control to be essential factors for the achievement of the Company's objectives. In order to implement these measures, the Company benefits from an Audit and Control Committee which, in turn, relies on the Risk Control and Management Function. Árima has therefore established a risk management model based on the Risk Management and Control Policy, which is detailed in greater detail in the Risk Management and Control Manual. This management model includes, in line with its commitment to integrate sustainability at all levels of the Company, an ESG risk analysis (Environmental, Social, Governance).

Árima's objective is to establish systematic and preventative procedures, aligned with renowned international risk management standards (COSO⁴ ERM 2017 - Business Risk Management Framework) and led by management, to forecast, prevent and detect risks.

⁴ The "Committee of Sponsoring Organizations" (COSO) is a voluntary private sector organization founded in 1985 whose mission is to provide intellectual leadership in relation to three interrelated issues: corporate risk management, internal control and fraud deterrence.

MANAGEMENT REPORT FOR THE YEAR ENDED 2024

Risk management and control is an ongoing process based on (i) the identification and assessment of potential Company risks based on strategic and business objectives, (ii) the determination of critical risk action plans and controls, (iii) monitoring the effectiveness of the controls and residual risk developments put in place, to report to the Company's governing bodies.

In addition, the Risk Management System operates in a comprehensive, continuous, and cross-cutting way, and serves the management of all priority risks, both internal and external.

Note 3 of the financial statements gives details of the Company's risk management activities.

Description of policies, objectives, measures and how they have been implemented, including results achieved.

The Company has a Director Selection Policy, approved by the Board of Directors and in force, through which it ensures that director selection procedures favour diversity of gender, experience and knowledge, and do not suffer from implicit biases that could imply any discrimination. It also ensures that candidates for non-executive directors have sufficient time available for the proper performance of their duties.

- C.1.6 Explain the measures agreed by the appointments committee, where applicable, to ensure that selection processes are not subject to any implicit bias that would make it difficult to select female directors, and to ensure that the company makes a conscious effort to search for and include female candidates who have the required professional profile, thus allowing for a balanced presence between men and women. Also indicate whether these measures include encouraging the company to have a significant number of female senior managers:

The Company has a Director Selection Policy, approved by the Board of Directors and in force, through which it ensures that the procedures for selecting directors promote gender diversity, diversity of experience and knowledge, and are not subject to implicit biases that may imply any discrimination. Description of changes

On 14 May 2024, the Board of Directors, following a proposal by the Audit and Control Committee, which was accompanied by the corresponding explanatory report, unanimously approved the amendment of article 31.6 of the Board of Directors' Regulations in order to increase the number of votes in favour required for the approval of resolutions requiring a qualified majority. The Board of Directors reported on this amendment at the General Meeting of Shareholders held on 20 June 2024.

C.1.16 Give details of the procedures for selecting, appointing, re-electing and removing Directors. List the competent bodies and the processes and criteria used for each procedure.

The Company's director selection policy is governed by the following principles:

1. The aim will be to ensure that the Board of Directors comprises a balanced membership with the majority being Non-Executive Directors and with a reasonable ratio of Proprietary and Independent Directors.
2. The Board of Directors shall ensure that the procedures for the selection of Directors favour diversity of gender, experience and knowledge and are free from any implicit bias that might lead to discrimination. It will also ensure that candidates for Non-Executive Directors have sufficient time available to properly perform their duties.
3. Additionally, the process of selecting candidates for the position of Director will begin with a preliminary analysis of the needs of the Company and its Group. This analysis will be carried out by the Company's Board of Directors, with advice and a mandatory prior supporting report from the Appointments and Remuneration Committee.
4. The supporting report from the Appointments and Remuneration Committee shall be published when convening the General Shareholders' Meeting to which the ratification, appointment or re-election of each Director is to be submitted.
5. The Appointments and Remuneration Committee will annually verify compliance with the Board Member Selection Policy and will detail its findings in the Annual Corporate Governance Report.

C.1.17 Explain the extent to which the annual appraisal of the Board has given rise to significant changes in its internal organisation and the procedures applicable to its activities:

Description of changes

No data available

Describe the appraisal process and the areas assessed by the Board of Directors with the help, where required, of external advisors, regarding the function and composition of the board and its committees and any other area or aspect that has been subject to appraisal.

Description of the appraisal process and areas assessed

The Board of Directors shall carry out an annual self-assessment of its operation and that of its Committees and Commissions, assessing especially the diversity in the composition and competencies of the Board of Directors, as well as the performance of the Chairman of the Board of Directors, the chief executive of the Company and the different Directors, paying special attention to the heads of the different Committees and Commissions of the Board, and shall adopt the appropriate measures for their improvement. The result of the evaluation shall be recorded in the minutes of the meeting or shall be annexed thereto. The evaluation of the different Committees and Commissions shall be based on the report they submit to the Board of Directors, and for the evaluation of the Board of Directors, on the report prepared by the Nomination and Remuneration Committee. Every three years, the Board of Directors shall be assisted in the evaluation by an external consultant, whose independence shall be verified by the Nomination and Remuneration Committee. Thus, in the financial year 2021, the Board of Directors was assisted in its evaluation by an external expert. This advice will not take place in financial year 2024 since, following the settlement of the voluntary public tender offer for the acquisition of Árima shares by JSS Real Estate SOCIMI, S.A., which took place on 11 November 2024, the Board of Directors has been changed.

Any business relationships that the consultant (or any company from its group) maintains with the Company (or any company within the Group) must be listed in the Annual Corporate Governance Report. The process and the areas assessed will be described in the aforementioned Annual Corporate Governance Report.

C.1.18 For financial years in which the assessment has been assisted by an external advisor, give details of the business relationships that the external advisor or any company in its group maintains with the company or any company in its group.

C.1.19 Indicate the cases in which Directors are obliged to resign.

Article 12 of the Board of Directors' Regulations regulates the dismissal and removal of Directors:

1. Directors must relinquish their post and formalise their resignation whenever any of the grounds set out in law for incompatibility or disqualification from holding the position of director become apparent, and also in the following cases:

- a) In the case of proprietary directors, when the shareholder at whose request they were appointed transfers the entire holding that it had in the Company or reduces it to such a level that this requires a reduction in the number of its proprietary directors.
- b) When the Board itself requests this by a majority of at least two thirds (2/3) of its members, due to the director having infringed his/her obligations, following a proposal or report from the Appointment and Remuneration Committee, or when his/her remaining on the Board could endanger the Company's credit and reputation.
2. In the event that a private individual representing a legal entity that holds a position of the board becomes affected by any of the grounds set out in law for incompatibility or disqualification from office, the legal entity that holds the position on the board must immediately replace that person.

3. The Board of Directors may not propose the removal of any independent director prior to the end of the statutory period for which he/she was appointed, unless there are fairgrounds as assessed by the Board following a report from the Appointments and Remuneration Committee. In particular, it shall be understood that just cause exists when the director has failed to comply with the duties inherent in his/her post, has failed to comply with any applicable recommendation on the subject of corporate governance or has become bound by any of the circumstances preventing his/her appointment as an independent director. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Board may also propose the removal of independent directors resulting from takeover bids, mergers or other similar corporate operations that imply a change in the Company's capital structure, when such changes in the structure of the Board are supported by the criterion for proportionality set out in article 9, section 3, above.
4. When a director leaves his/her post before the end of his/her term, whether through resignation or due to any other cause, he/she shall explain their reasons in a letter sent to all members of the Board, notwithstanding the resignation being notified as a significant event and the reason for the resignation being noted in the Annual Corporate Governance Report. In particular, in the event that the resignation of the Director is due to the Board having adopted significant or repeated resolutions regarding which the director has set down on record his/her reservations and as a consequence of this has decided to resign, this circumstance shall be expressly stated in his/her resignation letter. This provision also applies to the secretary of the Board, even if he/she is not a director.
5. Notwithstanding the above, the removal of directors may be approved by the General Shareholders' Meeting at any moment, even when not provided for in the meeting's agenda.

- [V] Yes

Where applicable, describe the differences.

Description of differences

Article 31 of the Regulations of the Board of Directors establishes in section 6 that the favourable vote of a qualified majority of directors will be necessary for (i) the approval of the report necessary for the General Meeting to approve the establishment of the compensation system for directors and management of the Company, consisting of the delivery of shares or rights over them, for (ii) the modifications with respect to the Company's business and for (iii) the modification of article 31.6 itself.

Likewise, article 4.3. of the Board Regulations establishes a 2/3 majority of the Board to be able to modify the Regulation itself, and 12.1. b) of the Board Regulations establishes a 2/3 majority of the Board in order to request termination or resignation of the Directors.

- C.1.28 Explain the mechanisms, if any, put in place by the board of directors to ensure that the individual and consolidated financial statements prepared by the board are not presented at the general shareholders' meeting with a qualified audit report.

Continuing with the development of a rigorous internal control system, the Company prepared a Financial Information Internal Control System (SCIIF) Management Manual, which was approved by the Board of Directors of the Company in fiscal year 2021. This SCIIF Manual establishes the bases for the maintenance, review, reporting and supervision of Árima's financial information, ensuring that the risks of errors, omissions or fraud are adequately controlled, whether by prevention, detection, mitigation, compensation or correction, providing reasonable assurance that internal controls operate effectively and contribute to guaranteeing the reliability of the Company's financial information. The Company's SCIIF was verified by the external auditor, obtaining a satisfactory result. On the other hand, the annual accounts are subject to an audit process. In this sense, article 40 of the Regulations of the Board of Directors regulates the relations with external auditors in the following terms:

1. The relations of the Board of Directors with the external auditors of the Company shall be channelled through the Audit and Compliance Committee.
2. The Board of Directors shall refrain from engaging audit firms whose fees that the company and the companies in its group expect to pay, for all concepts, are greater than five (5%) per cent of the revenues of the audit firm in Spain during the immediately preceding year.
3. The Board of Directors shall endeavour to definitely formulate the accounts in such a way that there are no qualifications or reservations in the audit report, and in the exceptional cases in which they do exist, both the chairman of the Audit and Compliance Committee and the auditors shall clearly explain to the shareholders the content and scope of such reservations or qualifications. In accordance with the foregoing, the Audit Committee supervises both the conclusions and financial statements obtained by the financial department once the financial closing process has been executed, as well as the conclusions obtained by the external auditor following its audit process, both verifying the application of the accounting regulations in force at any given time. This supervisory work is carried out prior to the Board of Directors' meeting at which the annual accounts are drawn up, so that the level of assurance over the financial statements issued is total.

(i) to bring before the Board of Directors proposals for the selection, appointment, re-election and replacement of the external auditor (which must be international firms of acknowledged standing), along with the terms of their engagement;

(ii) to receive information from the external auditor on a regular basis regarding the audit plan and the results of its execution, and to check that the management takes its recommendations into account;

(iii) to ensure the independence of the external auditor and, to that end, ensure that the Company informs the CNMV (Spanish Securities Market Commission) of the change of auditor as a significant event, enclosing a declaration on the possible existence of disagreements with the outgoing auditor and their content, where applicable; and in the event that the external auditor resigns, to examine the circumstances that caused its resignation.

The Audit and Control Committee must establish the appropriate relations with the account's auditors or auditing companies in order to receive information on those questions that could endanger their independence, so that these can be examined by the Audit and Control Committee, along with any other questions relating to the process of conducting the accounts audits and any other communications provided for in the legislation on accounts audits and auditing standards. In all cases, they must receive written confirmation each year from the account's auditors or the auditing companies regarding their independence from the company and any companies directly or indirectly related to it, along with information on additional services of any kind that have been provided to these companies by the said auditors or companies or parties related to them, in accordance with the provisions of Spanish Accounts Auditing Act 22 of 20 July 2015;

(iv) to aid the Company's auditor so that it can accept responsibility for the audits of the companies belonging to the group, where applicable;

(v) in the event of the external auditor's resignation, to examine the circumstances that have caused it;

(vi) to ensure that the payment of the external auditor does not compromise its quality or independence;

(vii) to ensure that the external auditor has a yearly meeting with the Board of Directors in full session to inform it of the work undertaken and developments in the Company's risk and accounting positions;

(viii) to ensure that the Company and its external auditor respect the regulations in force on the provision of services other than auditing, the limits on the concentration of the auditor's business and, in general, all other regulations governing the independence of auditors.

In addition, prior to the issue of the accounts audit report, the Audit and Control Committee must produce an annual report in which it gives an opinion on the independence of the account's auditors or auditing companies. This report must, in all cases, include a statement regarding the provision of the additional services referred to in section b), point (iii), above.

E. RISK CONTROL AND MANAGEMENT SYSTEMS

E.1. Explain the scope of the Company's Risk Control and Management System, including measures relating to tax risk:

The Board of Directors is the body responsible for determining the risk control and management policy, identifying the Company's main risks, implementing the appropriate internal control and information systems, and carrying out regular monitoring of the main risks to which the Company is exposed. By virtue of the above, the Board of Directors of the Company has approved the Risk Control and Management Policy and the Risk Management Manual. This establishes a systematic and preventive procedure, in line with international standards of reference in risk management to address risks by anticipating, preventing and detecting them. The risk management system considers both the company's own characteristics and those of the economic, geographical and regulatory environments in which it operates. The risk management policy and strategy is the responsibility of the Board of Directors. However, all members of the organisation are involved and responsible for ensuring the success of the risk management system.

E.2. Identify the company bodies responsible for preparing and implementing the Risk Management System, including measures relating to tax risk.

The Company's Board of Directors is responsible for determining the risk control and management Policy, including tax risks, and the implementation and supervision of the internal information and control systems. To carry out these functions, the Company's Board of Directors has the collaboration of the Audit and Control Committee as an advisory body (article 43 of the Company's Statutes establishes that the Board of Directors must create and maintain in its within and on a permanent and internal basis, an Audit and Control Committee / Article 44 of the Company's Statutes attributes to the Audit and Control Committee the primary function of supporting the Board of Directors in its oversight duties, through the periodic review of the process of preparing economic-financial information, its internal controls and the independence of the external Auditor), which in turn, is supported by the Risk Control and Management Function, which must ensure the proper functioning of the internal control and risk management system.

E.3. State the primary risks, including tax compliance risk and, where significant, risk arising from corruption (this being understood in the terms set out in Royal Legislative Decree 18/2017), where such risks may affect the achievement of business objectives:

The following is a list of some of the main kinds of risk that may be encountered as a result of the Company's real estate and assets management activity, all of which are covered by the risk monitoring system.

1. Financial risk

a) Market risk

Interest rate risk. The Company's interest rate risk arises from its financial debt. The Company occasionally engages in interest rate swaps to cover this risk.

b) Credit risk

The Company is not exposed to significant levels of credit risk, this being understood to mean the impact that the non-payment of receivables could have on its income statement. The company has policies that ensure that both sales and lettings are made to clients with an appropriate credit history.

c) Liquidity risk

The Company's Finance Department is responsible for managing liquidity risk in order to cover any existing payment obligations and/or any undertakings arising from new investments. To this end it analyses the expected cash flows.

2. Market risk

The Company minimises this type of risk through its own strategy and business model. Árima invests in prime properties, with strong upside potential in the office, logistics and retail sectors, in the most consolidated areas. The Company has implemented a long-term business plan that focuses on value creation through active management and repositioning of the portfolio, with special attention to environmental sustainability.

3. Economic risk

Risks in acquisitions is managed by completing a meticulous analysis of transactions, examining and foreseeing any problems that might arise in the future, and considering the possible solutions to such problems. In disposals, the main risk resides in the failure to collect the amounts agreed in the contracts as a result of the buyers' non-compliance. These risks are minimised through the establishment of all kinds of guarantees that will, if necessary, allow the total price to be received or the property forming the object of disposal to be recovered.

4. Risks of a legal and fiscal nature

The Company's activities are subject to legal and fiscal provisions and to the requirements of urban development. Local, regional, national and European authorities can impose sanctions for breaches of these regulations and requirements. Any changes to this legal and fiscal environment could affect general planning of the Company activities which, through the corresponding internal departments, with assistance from legal and tax advisors, will monitor, analyse and, where appropriate take the necessary measures in this regard.

The risks associated with complying with the specific legislation, would be the following:

a) Judicial and extrajudicial claims. The Company's business activities may lead to legal action being taken in relation to properties being let, even if these may result from the actions of third parties contracted by the Company (architects, engineers, construction contractors and subcontractors). The Company has taken out various civil liability and damage insurance policies in order to mitigate this type of risk.

b) Company responsibilities resulting from its classification as a SOCIMI. All of the Company's activities must comply with Act 11/2009, which sets out the regulations for SOCIMIs. As a result, the Company constantly monitors its own activities and checks that they are in line with the legislation currently in force in this regard.

5. Risks regarding the prevention of money laundering and monetary infringements

This category of risk is controlled through the prevention and monitoring of transactions carried out by the Company, in accordance with the legislation in force.

6. Risks relating to personal data protection.

These risks are controlled by means of special and standardised clauses to be included in contracts in different situations, which in accordance with the rules regulating this area, allow any kind of liability that may affect the Company to be limited and even eliminated.

7. Risks relating to the Protection of Consumers and End Users

The Company complies with the requirements of the different state and regional rules regarding consumers and end users. The Company also has an Internal Code of Conduct focused on matters relating to stock markets.

Sections IV and V of the Internal Code of Conduct establish the behaviour and action criteria that recipients of the Code must comply with in relation to the relevant securities and instruments, any privileged and relevant information, and confidential documents, in order to aid transparency in the performance of the Company's activities and provide adequate information and protection for investors.

E.4. Indicate whether the company has a risk tolerance level, including against tax risk:

Árima's risk tolerance is defined as the level of Risk that the Company is prepared to accept in order to achieve its established strategic objectives. Risk tolerance is shaped by the Company's strategy and is agreed by the Board of Directors. Risk tolerance is defined as the level of variation that the Company accepts in achieving an objective. It is, therefore, the acceptable threshold for each risk and objective. Risk tolerance must be updated regularly by the people from each department who are responsible for reporting to and properly informing the compliance supervisor.

E.5. Identify any risks, including tax risk, which have emerged during the year:

No risk of the type described above has emerged during the year.

E.6. Explain the plans for responding to and monitoring the main risks facing the company, including tax risk, and the procedures put in place by the company to ensure that the board of directors is able to respond to any new challenges that may arise:

The Risk Management System operates in a comprehensive, continuous and cross-cutting manner and addresses the management of all priority risks, both internal and external. To this end, the approach adopted for risk management considers the following basic elements in an aligned manner: control environment, objectives, risk identification and management, and control activities. Once a risk has been assessed and the control activities carried out have been carried out for its mitigation, if the risk level is not in the comfort zone, an additional action (Action Plan) is required to reduce the level of risk to the desired level. Risk Managers are responsible for designing, implementing and updating the corresponding Action Plans, considering at all times the views and comments of the Head of Risk Management and Control Function and the Audit and Control Committee. The objective of these Action Plans is to provide the response that best places the risk within the previously established objectives, complementing the control activities already in place. Once the Action Plans have been defined, the Risk Managers communicate them to the Head of the Risk Control and Management Function who, if considered necessary, after a prior analysis, submits them to the Audit and Control Committee for its knowledge and approval and, ultimately, to the Board of Directors.

The scope of the Internal Control over Financial Reporting System shall be reviewed at least annually before setting the reporting schedule for the following year. Reporting schedule for the following financial year.

- The existence of a process for identifying the consolidation perimeter, taking account, among other things, of the potential existence of complex corporate structures, vehicle companies or special purpose entities:

Árima's organisational structure is simple and consists of Árima Real Estate SOCIMI, S.A. and two subsidiary companies (100%): Árima Investigación, Desarrollo e Innovación, S.L.U. and Árima Investments, S.L. The financial department, on a quarterly basis, verifies the aforementioned consolidation perimeter.

- Whether the process takes account of the effects of other types of risk (operational, technological, financial, legal, fiscal, reputational, environmental, etc.) in the manner in which they affect the financial statements:

Any analysis will include all regulatory, technological and reputational risk, risk of fraud, human resource-related risk, operational risk, etc. that are relevant for the financial statements.

- The corporate governance body that supervises the process:

The ICFR is a set of processes that affect all levels of the organisation and all Company personnel. Mainly:

1. Board of Directors

With reference to the ICFR, the Regulations of the Board of Directors establish the following functions of the Board:

- To prepare the annual accounts and their presentation to the General Meeting.
- Determine the risk management and control policy.
- To monitor the internal control and information systems.
- Approve the financial information which, as a listed company, the Company must periodically publish.

As the body ultimately responsible for supervising the ICFR, the Board of Directors has established the necessary organisational structure to monitor the ICFR system, with the support of the Audit and Compliance Committee.

2. Audit and Compliance Committee

In order to ensure the reliability of financial information, the Audit and Compliance Committee has been assigned the following functions:

- To ensure the proper functioning of the information and internal control systems, in particular with regard to the preparation and integrity of the financial information.
- To be aware of and periodically review the process of preparation and presentation of financial information and the internal risk control and management systems associated with the risks associated with the Company's significant risks.
- Submit recommendations or proposals to the Board of Directors aimed at safeguarding the integrity of the information and control systems.

In the performance of these duties, the Audit and Compliance Committee must ensure the following aspects relating to the company's ICFR:

- Compliance with regulatory requirements.
- Adequate delimitation of the scope of consolidation.
- The correct application of accounting criteria.

In terms of the organisation of the ICFR work, the Audit and Compliance Committee is responsible for approving what and when to supervise and how to assess ICFR supervision (approval of the ICFR work and supervision Plan).

3. Financial Management

Árima's CFO has the following responsibilities in the framework of the ICFR:

- Design, implement, evaluate and provide overall monitoring of the ICFR, for which he/she shall validate the design of the ICFR Work and Monitoring Plan.
- Report on the effective functioning of the ICFR to the Audit and Control Committee.
- Ensure that appropriate ICFR training programmes are implemented.

4. ICFR Responsible

The ICFR Responsible is part of the Company's Finance Department and is assigned the following duties within the ICFR framework:

- Identify the risks of error, omission or fraud in financial reporting through the ICFR scoping matrix and document the design of controls.
- Ensure the correct functioning of the ICFR, for which purpose those responsible for each process/sub-process and associated controls must monitor them and report such information to the ICFR Responsible at Árima.
- Prepare reports for the Financial Management, considering the results of the reports received.
- Alert on changes in regulatory and financial information risk scenarios.
- Identify new risks in the processes.
- Collaborate in the proposal of improvement actions and resolution of incidents.

F.3. Monitoring activities.

State whether at least the following items are in place and specify their main characteristics:

- F.3.1 Procedures for reviewing and authorising the financial information and the description of ICFR to be disclosed to the securities markets, stating who is responsible in each case, along with the documentation showing flow charts of activities and controls (including those that address the risk of fraud) for each type of transaction that may materially affect the financial statements, including procedures for the closing of accounts and for the specific review of critical judgements, estimates, evaluations and projections.

The Company has an internal procedure for reviewing financial information (including annual accounts, financial statements for interim periods, the Management Report and the Annual Corporate Governance Report), which oversees the process from the moment that information is generated in the Administration and Finances Department up to its approval by the Audit and Control Committee and, finally, by the Board of Directors prior to publication. This process is reflected in the Monitoring Manual for the Internal Control over Financial Reporting System approved by the Board of Directors, which establishes both the responsibilities and the flows of the control activities on the material sub-processes that give rise to the issuance of financial information.

- F.3.2 Internal control policies and procedures for IT systems (including secure access, tracking changes, system operation, continuity and segregation of duties) giving support to key company processes relating to the preparation and publication of financial information.

The internal control policies and procedures associated with the information systems are defined by the Company's management. The main risks contemplated by the Company, and to which it responds, affect physical security (backup copies, maintenance and access to servers, etc.), logical security (access controls, registration and deregistration procedures, protection against viruses and other malware, etc.), sufficient segregation of duties, registration and traceability of information, privacy (LOPD), development and maintenance of systems. The Company is advised by a third-party systems expert who carries out regular security audits covering, inter alia, all these aspects. In addition, the Company proactively and regularly undergoes external IT audits, where necessary establishing action plans, the results of which are reported to the Board of Directors. In addition, the Board of Directors has approved a Business Continuity Plan to minimise the risk of business interruption for any reason.

- F.3.3 Internal control policies and procedures for overseeing the management of activities outsourced to third parties, and the appraisal, calculation or valuation services commissioned from independent experts, when these may materially affect the financial statements.

The activity subcontracted to third parties that has a greater impact on the financial statements corresponds to the valuation of assets by an independent expert. The procedure in this regard implemented by the Company basically includes the recommendations of the CNMV to listed valuation and real estate companies in relation to the valuation of real estate assets. Moreover, the results obtained are always contrasted with the estimates of Árima's internal experts, who supervise the valuation process. Likewise, the conclusions obtained are always reviewed by the Company's Auditors. On the other hand, the Company, for the services it subcontracts, works with companies of recognized prestige in the sector.

F.4. Information and communications.

State whether at least the following items are in place and specify their main characteristics:

- F.4.1 A specific office which is in charge of defining and maintaining accounting policies (accounting policies area or department) and settling queries or disputes over their interpretation, and which is in regular communication with the team in charge of company operations, and an up-to-date manual of accounting policies that has been sent to all the company's operational units.

The Company's Administration and Finance Department is responsible for defining and updating accounting policies and for responding to queries and consultations in this regard.

- F.4.2 Mechanisms for collecting and preparing financial information with standardised formats, which are to be applied and used by all the company or group units and which support the main financial statements and notes to the accounts, along with the detailed information on the ICFR.

The accounting policies defined by the Management form the basis for the preparation of the financial information of both the Company and its subsidiaries. These accounting policies guarantee the application of the same criteria during the preparation of information and consistency in its presentation.

F.5. Supervising the operation of the system.

Indicate, pointing out its main characteristics:

- F.5.1 The activities of the audit committee in overseeing ICFR, and whether there is an internal auditing office whose duties include supporting the committee in the task of supervising the internal control system, including ICFR. Describe the scope of the ICFR assessment carried out over the course of the year and the procedure by which the person responsible for making this assessment can communicate his/her findings. State also whether the company has an action plan detailing the potential corrective measures, and whether it has taken account of their impact on its financial information.

As indicated in article 44 of the Company's Articles of Association, the Audit and Compliance Committee's duties include, among others, the following periodic review of the process of preparing the economic and financial information, its internal controls and the independence of the external auditor. Specifically, the ICFR Manual approved by the Board of Directors assigns it the following responsibilities:

- Ensuring the proper functioning of the information and internal control systems, in particular with regard to the preparation and integrity of the financial information.
- To be familiar with and periodically review the process of preparation and presentation of financial information and the internal risk control and management systems associated with the Company's significant risks.
- Submit recommendations or proposals to the Board of Directors aimed at safeguarding the integrity of the information and control systems.

In the performance of these duties, the Audit and Compliance Committee must ensure the following aspects relating to the company's ICFR:

- Compliance with regulatory requirements.
- Adequate delimitation of the scope of consolidation.
- The correct application of accounting criteria.

In terms of the organisation of the ICFR work, the Audit and Compliance Committee is responsible for approving what and when to supervise and how to assess ICFR supervision (approval of the ICFR Work and Monitoring Plan).

The Audit and Control Committee is also supported by the Financial Management and the ICFR Responsible, who prepares a report on the status of compliance and effectiveness of the ICFR, which is reported to the Finance Department. The latter, in turn, reports the results obtained to the Audit and Control Committee (which will submit them to the Board of Directors when it considers it necessary). The scope of the Internal Control over Financial Reporting System must be reviewed at least once a year before setting the reporting calendar for the following year.

Furthermore, the conclusion of the Company's auditors on the financial information provided has been satisfactory.

- F.5.2 Whether the Company has a procedure by which the accounts auditor (in accordance with the contents of the Auditing Standards ("NTA")), the internal auditing department and other experts may communicate with senior management and the audit committee or senior managers of the company regarding any significant internal control weaknesses identified during their review of the annual accounts or any others they have been assigned. State also whether the Company has an action plan to correct or mitigate the weaknesses found.

The Audit and Control Committee meets in order to perform its prime function, which is to act as support for the Board of Directors in its supervisory work, by carrying out a regular review of the process for the preparation of the economic and financial information, the internal auditing department and the independence of the external auditor. In addition to other potential actions, it also carries out the following duties:

Discussions with External Auditors (with particular significance when they have acted on any specific matter: Audit reports, limited reviews, etc.) in order to:

- Obtain information on the planning, scope and conclusions of the work carried out.
- Obtain information on internal control weaknesses detected during the course of their work.
- Inform the external auditor about any matters that could affect their work.
- Talk to the external auditor regarding the expected contents of its reports.
- Obtain the necessary information for ensuring the independence of the External Auditor in compliance with the duties of the Audit and Control Committee. In addition, the Audit and Control Committee may demand additional information or the participation of experts when it comes to analysing topics relating to compliance with their duties.

F.6. Other relevant information

F.7. External auditor's report.

State whether:

- F.7.1 The ICFR information supplied to the markets has been reviewed by the external auditor, in which case the corresponding report should be attached. Otherwise, explain the reasons for the absence of this review.

Last year, the Company reviewed the internal control system over financial reporting. The external auditor holds regular meetings with the Financial Management, both to review the financial information and to evaluate the internal control in the development of the Company's activity. It is considered that the controls in place are adequate for the size and complexity of the Company, having undergone numerous review and audit processes of the financial information since its incorporation. The external auditor's conclusion has been satisfactory in all cases.

G. DEGREE OF COMPLIANCE WITH CORPORATE GOVERNANCE RECOMMENDATIONS

Indicate the degree to which the company complies with the Code of Corporate Governance recommendations for listed companies.

In the event that the Company does not comply with any of the recommendations or complies only in part, include a detailed explanation of the reasons so that shareholders, investors and the market in general have enough information to assess the company's behaviour. General explanations will not be acceptable.

1. The articles of association of listed companies should not place an upper limit on the votes that can be cast by a single shareholder, or impose other obstacles on the takeover of the company through the purchase of shares on the market.

Compliant [X] Explain []

2. When the listed company is controlled, within the meaning of article 42 of the Commercial Code, by another entity, whether listed or not, and has, directly or through its subsidiaries, business relations with that entity or any of its subsidiaries (other than those of the listed company) or carries out activities related to those of any of them, it should publicly disclose precisely the following:

- a) The type of activity they respectively engage in, and any potential business dealings between them, as well as between the subsidiary and other group companies.
- b) The mechanisms in place to resolve any potential conflicts of interest that may arise.

Compliant [] Partially compliant [] Explain [X] N.A. []

As explained in previous sections, on May 15, 2024, the board of directors of JSS Real Estate SOCIMI, S.A. decided to make a voluntary public takeover bid for all the shares into which the share capital of Árima was divided: 28,429,376 shares. Currently, JSS Real Estate SOCIMI, S.A. owns 99.56% of the shares of Árima. Both companies have the same corporate purpose and operate in similar segments within the real estate market. Notwithstanding the foregoing, a merger of both entities is expected to take place during 2025 (as set out in section 4.6 of the offer brochure), by virtue of which JSS Real Estate SOCIMI, S.A. will be dissolved, becoming part of Árima. In any case, the rules provided for in the Regulations of the Board of Directors to resolve potential conflicts of interest are as follows:

1. A conflict of interest shall be deemed to exist in situations where the interests of the Company or of the companies comprising its group and the personal interests of the director directly or indirectly conflict. A personal interest of the director shall exist when the matter affects him or her or a Person Related to him (as defined below).
2. For the purposes of the Regulations, the following shall be considered "Related Persons": a) with respect to a natural person, the following: (i) the spouse or persons with a similar emotional relationship; (ii) the ascendants, descendants and siblings of the person subject to the Regulations or of the spouse (or person with a similar emotional relationship) of the person subject to the Regulations; (iii) the spouses of the ascendants, descendants and siblings of the person subject to the Regulations; (iv) companies in which the person subject to the Regulation, by itself or through an intermediary, holds or may hold, directly or indirectly, control, in accordance with the situations contemplated in article 42 of the Spanish Commercial Code;
3. Conflict of interest situations shall be governed by the following rules: a) communication: the director must communicate to the Board of Directors, through the chairman or the secretary, any conflict of interest situation in which he or she may be found; b) abstention: the director must abstain from attending and participating in the deliberation and voting phases of those matters in which he or she is involved in a conflict of interest and, consequently, will not be taken into account in such cases for the purposes of calculating the quorum. In the case of proprietary directors, they must abstain from participating in voting on matters that may involve a conflict of interest between the shareholders who have proposed their appointment and the Company; c) transparency: in the Annual Corporate Governance Report, the Company will report on any conflict of interest situation in which the directors may be found, which is known to it by virtue of communication from the affected party or by any other means. 4. The provisions of this article may be developed through the corresponding rules that may be issued by the Board of Directors, including the Internal Code of Conduct.

3. During the general shareholders' meeting, as a supplement to the written information circulated in the annual corporate governance report, the chairman of the board should verbally inform shareholders in sufficient detail of the most relevant aspects of the company's corporate governance, in particular:

- a) Any changes that have taken place since the previous general shareholders' meeting.
- b) The specific reasons for the company not following a given Good Governance Code recommendation, and any alternative procedures followed in its stead, where applicable.

Compliant [X] Partially compliant [] Explain []

4. The company should define and promote a policy regarding communication and contacts with shareholders and institutional investors in the context of their involvement in the company, as well as with proxy advisors, that fully respects the rules against market abuse and treats shareholders in the same position in the same way. The company should make this policy public on its website, including information on how it has been put into practice and identifying the interlocutors or persons responsible for carrying it out.

And, without prejudice to legal obligations regarding the dissemination of inside information and other types of regulated information, the company should also have a general policy regarding the communication of economic-financial, non-financial and corporate information through the channels it deems appropriate (media, social networks or other channels) which contributes to maximising the dissemination and quality of the information available to the market, investors and other stakeholders. The company should draw up and implement a policy for communicating with and contacting shareholders, institutional investors and proxy advisors that complies in full with market abuse regulations and accords equitable treatment to shareholders in the same position.

Compliant [X] Partially compliant [] Explain []

5. The board of directors should not make a proposal to the general meeting for the delegation of powers to issue shares or convertible securities without pre-emptive subscription rights for an amount exceeding 20% of capital at the time of such delegation.

When the Board approves an issue of shares or convertible securities without pre-emptive subscription rights, the company should immediately post a report on its website explaining the exclusion as envisaged in company legislation.

Compliant [] Partially compliant [X] Explain []

The General Meeting of Shareholders, at its meeting held on 23 May 2023, authorised the Board of Directors to increase the share capital in accordance with article 297.1.b) of the Capital Companies Act, for a maximum period of five years, by means of cash contributions and up to a maximum amount equal to half (50%) of the share capital, with the power to exclude pre-emptive subscription rights only in those increases up to a maximum amount equal to 20% of the share capital.

6. Listed companies drawing up the following reports on a voluntary or compulsory basis should publish them on their website well in advance of the general shareholders' meeting, even if their distribution is not compulsory:

- Report on auditor independence.
- Reports on the operation of the audit committee and the appointments and remuneration committee.
- Report by the audit committee report on related party transactions.

Compliant [X] Partially compliant [] Explain []

The referenced documentation has been partially disclosed on the company's website.

7. The company broadcasts live, via its website, the holding of general shareholders' meetings.

And that the company has mechanisms that enable proxy voting and voting by telematic means and even, in the case of large cap companies and to the extent proportionate, attendance and active participation in the General Meeting.

Compliant [] Partially compliant [] Explain [X]

The Company provides shareholders with means of remote participation that have allowed significant attendance and participation in the general meetings held to date. Currently, it is not considered necessary to modify this procedure by incorporating live streaming of the meeting through the website or adopting additional electronic means for delegation and exercising the vote. However, the Company periodically evaluates best practices regarding shareholder participation to ensure an appropriate balance between accessibility, legal security, and proportionality.

8. The Audit Committee should ensure that the annual accounts submitted by the Board of Directors to the General Meeting of shareholders are drawn up in accordance with accounting regulations. In the event that the auditor has included a qualification in its audit report, the chairman of the audit committee should clearly explain to the general meeting the audit committee's opinion on its content and scope, making available to shareholders at the time of publication of the notice of call to the meeting, together with the rest of the proposals and reports of the board, a summary of said opinion.

Compliant [X] Partially compliant [] Explain []

9. The company should disclose its conditions and procedures for admitting share ownership, the right to attend General Shareholders' Meetings and the exercise or delegation of voting rights and display them permanently on its website.

Such conditions and procedures should encourage shareholders to attend and exercise their rights and be applied in a non-discriminatory manner.

Compliant [X] Partially compliant [] Explain []

10. When an accredited shareholder exercises the right to supplement the agenda or submit new proposals for agreement prior to the general shareholders' meeting, the company should:

- a) Immediately circulate the supplementary items and new proposals for agreement.
- b) Publish the standard form of attendance card or proxy appointment or remote voting form with the necessary modifications so that new items on the agenda and alternative proposals for agreement can be voted on in the same terms as those submitted by the board of directors.
- c) Put all these items or alternative proposals to the vote, applying the same voting rules as for those submitted by the board of directors, with particular regard for presumptions or deductions about the direction of votes.
- d) After the general shareholders' meeting, disclose the breakdown of votes on these supplementary items or alternative proposals.

Compliant [] Partially compliant [] Explain [] N.A. [X]

11. In the event that a company plans to pay for attendance at the general shareholders' meeting, it should first establish a general, long-term policy in this respect.

Compliant [] Partially compliant [] Explain [] N.A. [X]

12. The Board of Directors should perform its duties with a unity of purpose and independent judgement, according to the same treatment to all shareholders in the same position. It should be guided at all times by the company's best interests, understood as the creation of a profitable and sustainable business over the long term which ensures its continuity and maximises the company's economic value.

In pursuing the corporate interest, it should not only abide by laws and regulations and conduct itself according to the principles of good faith, ethics and respect for commonly accepted customs and good practices, but should also strive to reconcile its own interests with the legitimate interests of its employees, suppliers, clients and any other stakeholders who could be affected, as well as reconciling the impact of its activities on the broader community and the natural environment.

Compliant [X] Explain []

14. The Board of Directors should approve a Director selection policy that:

- a) Is specific and verifiable.
- b) Ensures that appointment or re-election proposals are based on a prior analysis of the board of directors' own needs.
- c) Favours a diversity of know-how, experience and gender. For these purposes, measures that encourage the company to have a significant number of female senior managers are considered to be conducive to gender diversity.

The results of the prior analysis of the Board's needs should be written up in the appointments committee's explanatory report, to be published when the general meeting is convened to ratify the appointment and re-election of each director.

The appointments Committee should run an annual check on compliance with the director selection policy and set out its findings in the annual corporate governance report.

Compliant [X] Partially compliant [] Explain []

15. Proprietary and independent directors should occupy a broad majority of seats on the board, while the number of executive directors should be the minimum necessary, bearing in mind the complexity of the corporate group and the percentage of the company's share capital held by the executive directors.

And that the number of female directors should account for at least 40% of the members of the board of directors by the end of 2022 and thereafter, but no earlier than 30%.

Compliant [X] Partially compliant [] Explain []

16. The number of proprietary directors as a percentage of the total number of non-executive directors should not exceed the proportion between the company share capital represented by these directors and the remainder of this share capital.

This criterion can be attenuated:

- In companies with a high level of market capitalisation in which few equity stakes attain the legal threshold to be considered a significant shareholding.
- In companies in which a plurality of shareholders is represented on the board of directors and they are not related to one another.

Compliant [X] Explain []

17. The number of Independent Directors should represent at least one half of all board members.

However, when the company does not have a large market capitalisation, or when a large cap company has shareholders individually or concertedly controlling over 30% of share capital, independent directors should occupy, at least, a third of all Board places.

Compliant [X] Explain []

Independent directors represent 40% of the total number of directors.

18. Companies should post the following information on directors on their websites, and keep this information permanently updated:

- Background and professional experience.
- Directorships held at other companies, listed or otherwise, and any other paid activities that they may engage in, of whatever nature.
- Information on the director category to which they belong and, in the case of proprietary directors, information on the shareholder they represent or have links with.
- The date of their first appointment as board member and the dates of any subsequent re-elections.
- Shares that they hold in the company, and any options thereover.

Compliant [] Partially compliant [X] Explain []

The Company is working on the publication of all the information reflected in this section, which is partially published.

19. The annual corporate governance report, following verification by the appointments committee, should explain the reasons for the appointment of proprietary directors at the behest of shareholders controlling less than 3% of capital; it should also explain, where applicable, any rejection of a formal request for a seat on the board from shareholders whose equity stake is equal to or greater than that of others that have successfully applied for a proprietary directorship.

Compliant [] Partially compliant [] Explain [] N.A. [X]

20. Proprietary directors should resign when the shareholders they represent dispose of their ownership interest in its entirety. If such shareholders reduce their stakes, thereby losing some of their entitlement to proprietary directors, the latter's number should be reduced accordingly.

Compliant [X] Partially compliant [] Explain [] N.A. []

21. The Board of Directors should not propose the removal of any independent directors before the expiry of their tenure as mandated by the articles of association, except where just cause is found by the board of directors, based on a report by the appointments committee. In particular, just cause shall be presumed when directors take up new posts or responsibilities that prevent them from allocating sufficient time to the performance of their duties as board member, or are in breach of the duties inherent in their position, or are affected by one of the grounds that disqualifies them from classification as independent, as set out in the applicable legislation.

The removal of independent directors may also be proposed as a consequence of a takeover bid, merger or similar corporate operation which involves changes to the company's capital structure, when the changes to the structure of the board of directors are triggered by the proportionality criterion set out in recommendation 16.

Compliant [X] Explain []

22. Companies should establish rules obliging directors to inform and, where applicable, resign in any circumstances that might harm the organisation's name or reputation, and directors should particularly be obliged to inform the Board of Directors of any criminal charges brought against them and of any subsequent court proceedings.

The Board, having been informed of or otherwise having knowledge of any of the situations mentioned in the preceding paragraph, should examine the matter as promptly as possible and, in view of the particular circumstances, decide, after a report from the Nomination and Remuneration Committee, whether or not to adopt any measure, such as the opening of an internal investigation, request the resignation of the director or propose his or her removal. And that a report be included in the annual corporate governance report, unless there are special circumstances justifying this, which should be recorded in the minutes. This is without prejudice to the information that the company must disclose, if appropriate, when the corresponding measures are adopted.

Compliant [X] Partially compliant [] Explain []

23. All directors should express clear opposition when they feel a proposal submitted for the board of directors' approval might damage the corporate interest. In particular, independents and other directors unaffected by a potential conflict of interest should challenge any decision that could go against the interests of shareholders lacking representation on the board of directors.

When the board takes significant or reiterated decisions about which a director has expressed serious reservations, then he or she must draw the pertinent conclusions. Directors resigning for such causes should set out their reasons in the letter referred to in the next recommendation.

The terms of this recommendation should also apply to the secretary of the board, even if he/she is not a director.

Compliant [X] Partially compliant [] Explain [] N.A. []

24. When, either by resignation or by resolution of the general meeting, a director retires from office before the end of his term of office, he should sufficiently explain the reasons for his resignation or, in the case of non-executive directors, his opinion on the reasons for the removal by the board, in a letter to be sent to all members of the board of directors.

And, without prejudice to the disclosure thereof in the annual corporate governance report, the company should, to the extent relevant for investors, publish the resignation as soon as possible, including sufficient reference to the reasons or circumstances provided by the director.

Compliant [X] Partially compliant [] Explain [] N.A. []

25. The appointments committee should ensure that non-executive directors have sufficient time available to perform their responsibilities effectively.

The board's regulations should establish rules for the maximum number of company directorships that board members may hold.

Compliant [X] Partially compliant [] Explain []

26. The Board should meet with the necessary frequency to properly perform its functions properly, at least eight times a year, in accordance with a calendar and agendas set at the beginning of the year, and each director may individually propose the addition of other items to the agenda.

Compliant [X] Partially compliant [] Explain []

27. Director absences should be kept to the bare minimum and quantified in the annual corporate governance report. In the event that their absence is unavoidable, directors should grant a proxy with the appropriate instructions.

Compliant [X] Partially compliant [] Explain []

28. When directors or the secretary express concerns about a proposal or, in the case of directors, about the company's performance, and such concerns are not resolved at the board meeting, the person expressing them can request that they be recorded in the minutes.

Compliant [X] Partially compliant [] Explain [] N.A. []

29. The company should provide suitable channels for directors to obtain the advice they need to carry out their duties, and this should extend, if the circumstances make this necessary, to external assistance at the company's expense.

Compliant [X] Partially compliant [] Explain []

30. Regardless of the knowledge directors must possess in order to perform their duties, companies should also offer them refresher programmes when the circumstances make this advisable.

Compliant [X] Explain [] N.A. []

31. The agendas of meetings should clearly indicate the points on which the board of directors must arrive at a decision or adopt a resolution, so that directors may study or gather the necessary information beforehand.

When, exceptionally and for reasons of urgency, the chairman wishes to present decisions or resolutions for board approval that were not on the meeting agenda, their inclusion shall require the express prior consent, duly recorded in the minutes, of the majority of directors present.

Compliant [X] Partially compliant [] Explain []

32. Directors should be regularly informed of movements in share ownership and of the views of major shareholders, investors and rating agencies on the company and its group.

Compliant [X] Partially compliant [] Explain []

33. In addition to the duties assigned to him by law and the company's articles of association, the chairman, as the person responsible for the efficient functioning of the board of directors, should: prepare and submit a schedule of meeting dates and agendas to the board; organise and coordinate regular evaluations of the board and, where appropriate, the company's chief executive officer; take responsibility for managing the board and its proper functioning; ensure that sufficient time is devoted to the discussion of strategic issues, and approve and review refresher courses for each director, when the circumstances make this advisable.

Compliant [X] Partially compliant [] Explain []

34. When a coordinating director has been appointed, the articles of association or board of directors' regulations should grant him or her the following powers over and above those conferred by law: chairing the board of directors in the absence of the chairman a vice chairmen, where applicable; giving voice to the concerns of non-executive directors; maintaining contacts with investors and shareholders to hear their views and developing a balanced understanding of their concerns, especially those to do with the company's corporate governance; and coordinating the plan for the chairman's succession.

Compliant [] Partially compliant [] Explain [] N.A. [X]

35. The Board secretary should particularly strive to ensure that the board's actions and decisions are informed by the governance recommendations set out in this good governance code, to the extent that they apply to the company.

Compliant [X] Explain []

36. The Board of Directors sitting in full session should conduct an annual evaluation, adopting, where necessary, an action plan to correct weakness detected in:

- a) The quality and efficiency of the board's own actions.
- b) The performance and membership of its committees.
- c) The diversity of board membership and skills.
- d) The performance of the chairman of the board of directors and the company's chief executive.
- e) The performance and contribution of individual directors, with particular attention to the chairs of board committees.

The evaluation of the various board committees should start from the reports they submit to the board of directors, while the evaluation of the board itself should start from the report submitted by the appointments committee.

Every three years, the board of directors should engage an external consultant to aid in the evaluation process. This consultant's independence should be verified by the appointments committee.

Any business dealings that the consultant or any member of its corporate group maintains with the company or members of its corporate group should be detailed in the annual corporate governance report.

The process followed and areas evaluated should be detailed in the annual corporate governance report.

Compliant [X] Partially compliant [] Explain []

37. When the company has an Executive committee, the breakdown of its members by director category should be similar to that of the board itself. The secretary of the board should also act as secretary to the executive committee.

This mechanism should guarantee confidentiality and, in any event, provide for cases in which communications may be made anonymously, respecting the rights of both the complainant and the reported.
- d) Overall, to ensure that the established internal control policies and systems are effectively implemented in practice.

2. With regard to the external auditor:

- a) In the event of the external auditor's resignation, examining the circumstances that have caused it.

- c) Ensuring that the company notifies any change of auditor to the CNMV as a significant event, accompanied by a statement detailing any potential disagreements arising with the outgoing auditor, where applicable, and the reasons for these disagreements.
- d) Ensuring that the external auditor has a yearly meeting with the board of directors in full session to inform it of the work undertaken and developments in the company's risk and accounting positions.

- b) They should be chaired by independent directors.
- c) The board of directors should appoint the members of such committees in consideration of the knowledge, skills and experience of its directors and the duties to be performed by each committee, and it should discuss their proposals and reports. 53. Supervision of compliance with the company's environmental, social and corporate governance policies and rules, as well as internal codes of conduct, should be entrusted to one or more committees of the Board of Directors, which may be the Audit Committee, the nomination committee, a committee specialising in sustainability or corporate social responsibility or another committee that the board of directors, in the exercise of its powers of self-organisation, has decided to create. Such a committee should be composed solely of non-executive directors, the majority of whom should be independent, and should be attributed with the following powers and be specifically attributed the minimum functions indicated in the following recommendation.

Compliant [X] Partially compliant [] Explain []

54. The minimum functions referred to in the above recommendation are as follows:

- a) Supervision of compliance with the company's corporate governance rules and internal codes of conduct, also ensuring that the corporate culture is aligned with its purpose and values.
- b) Supervision of the application of the general policy regarding the communication of economic-financial, non-financial and corporate information as well as communication with shareholders and investors, proxy advisors and other stakeholders. The way in which the entity communicates and relates to small and medium-sized shareholders shall also be monitored.
- c) Evaluating and periodically reviewing the corporate governance system and the company's environmental and social policy to ensure that they fulfil their mission of promoting the corporate welfare and take into account, as appropriate, the legitimate interests of other stakeholders.
- d) overseeing that the company's environmental and social practices are in line with the company's strategy and policy.

- b) methods or systems for monitoring compliance with policies, associated risks and their management.
- c) mechanisms for monitoring non-financial risk, including those related to ethical and business conduct issues.
- d) Channels of communication, participation and dialogue with stakeholders.
- e) Responsible communication practices that avoid manipulation of information and protect integrity and honour. integrity and honour.

Compliant [X] Partially compliant [] Explain []

56. Director remuneration should be sufficient to attract and retain directors with the desired profile and compensate the commitment, abilities and responsibility that the post demands, but not so high as to compromise the independent judgement of non-executive directors.

Compliant [X] Explain []

57. Variable remuneration linked to the company's and the director's individual performance, remuneration via the awarding of shares, options or any other right over shares, or the right to be remunerated on the basis of share price movements should be confined to executive directors, along with membership of long-term savings schemes, such as pension plans, retirements schemes or other social welfare programmes.

The company may consider the payment of non-executive directors through the handover of shares, provided that they retain such shares until the end of their mandate. The above condition shall not apply to any shares that the director must dispose of to settle costs related to their acquisition, where applicable.

Compliant [] Partially compliant [] Explain [X]

[Not applicable, the Company has no executive directors.]

58. In the case of variable payments, remuneration policies should include the necessary limits and technical safeguards to ensure that such payments reflect the professional performance of the beneficiaries and not simply the general progress of the markets or the company's business sector or other similar circumstances.

In particular, variable payment items should meet the following conditions:

- a) They should be linked to predetermined and measurable performance criteria that factor in the risk assumed in order to obtain a given outcome.
- b) They should promote the sustainability of the company and include non-financial criteria that are relevant to the creation of long-term value, such as compliance with the company's internal rules and procedures and its risk control and management policies.
- c) They should be designed to achieve a balance between the delivery of short, medium and long-term objectives, in such a way that performance-related pay rewards ongoing achievement, maintained over sufficient time to appreciate its contribution to sustainable value creation. This will ensure that performance measurement is not based solely on one-off, occasional or extraordinary events.

Compliant [X] Partially compliant [] Explain [] N.A. []

59. The payment of variable components of remuneration should be subject to sufficient verification that performance or other pre-established conditions have been effectively met. Institutions should include in the annual directors' remuneration report the criteria for the time required and methods for such verification, depending on the nature and characteristics of each variable component.

In addition, entities should consider the establishment of a reduction clause based on the deferral for a sufficient period of time of the payment of a part of the variable components that entails their total or partial loss in the event that some event occurs prior to the time of payment that makes it advisable to do so.

Compliant [X] Partially compliant [] Explain [] N.A. []

60. In the case of remuneration linked to company earnings, any qualifications stated in the external auditor's report should be considered and the said earnings reduced accordingly.

Compliant [X] Partially compliant [] Explain [] N.A. []

61. A significant percentage of executive directors' variable remuneration should be linked to the handover of shares or financial instruments linked to their value.

Compliant [] Partially compliant [] Explain [] N.A. [X]

[Not applicable, the Company has no executive directors.]

62. When the shares or options or rights in shares corresponding to remuneration systems have been allocated, directors should not be able to transfer ownership of a number of shares equivalent to twice their fixed annual remuneration, nor should they be able to exercise the options or rights granted to them until a term of at least three years has elapsed since their allocation.

An exception is made in the case where the director maintains, at the time of transfer or exercise, a net economic exposure to share price variation of a market value equivalent to an amount of at least twice his annual fixed remuneration through the ownership of shares, options or other financial instruments.

The foregoing shall not apply to shares that the director needs to dispose of in order to meet the costs related to their acquisition or, subject to the favourable opinion of the nomination and remuneration committee, in order to deal with extraordinary situations that so require.

Compliant [] Partially compliant [] Explain [] N.A. [X]

[Not applicable, the Company has no executive directors.]

63. Contractual arrangements should include provisions that permit the company to reclaim variable payment amounts when payment is found to be out of step with the director's actual performance or based on data subsequently found to be incorrect.

Compliant [] Partially compliant [] Explain [] N.A. [X]

[Not applicable, the Company has no executive directors.]

64. Contract termination payments should not exceed a fixed amount equivalent to two years of the director's total annual remuneration and should not be paid until the company confirms that the director in question has met the predetermined performance criteria.

For the purposes of this recommendation, termination or contractual termination payments include any payments whose accrual or payment obligation arises as a result of or in connection with the termination of the director's contractual relationship with the company, including amounts not previously vested in long-term savings schemes and amounts paid under post-contractual non-competition agreements.

Con fecha 14 de mayo de 2024, el Consejo de Administración, previa propuesta del Comité de Auditoría y Control, que acompañó la correspondiente memoria justificativa, aprobó por unanimidad modificar el artículo 31.6 del Reglamento del Consejo de Administración con el fin de incrementar el número de votos favorables requeridos para la aprobación de acuerdos que exijan mayoría cualificada. El Consejo de Administración informó de esta modificación en la Junta General de Accionistas celebrada el 20 de junio de 2024.

C.1.16 Indique los procedimientos de selección, nombramiento, reelección y remoción de los consejeros.

Detalle los órganos competentes, los trámites a seguir y los criterios a emplear en cada uno de los procedimientos.

La política de selección de consejeros de la Sociedad se rige por los siguientes principios

- 1.- Se buscará que el Consejo de Administración tenga una composición equilibrada, con una amplia mayoría de Consejeros no Ejecutivos y una adecuada proporción entre Consejeros Dominicales e Independientes.
- 2.- El Consejo de Administración velará por que los procedimientos de selección de Consejeros favorezcan la diversidad de género, de experiencias y de conocimientos, y no adolezcan de sesgos implícitos que puedan implicar discriminación alguna. Igualmente, se asegurará de que los candidatos a Consejero no Ejecutivo tengan suficiente disponibilidad de tiempo para el correcto desarrollo de sus funciones.
- 3.- Asimismo, en el proceso de selección de candidatos a Consejero se partirá de un análisis previo de las necesidades de la Sociedad y de su Grupo. Dicho análisis será llevado a cabo por el Consejo de Administración de la Sociedad, con el asesoramiento y preceptivo informe justificativo previo del Comité de Nombramientos y Remuneraciones.

- 5.- El Comité de Nombramientos y Remuneraciones verificará anualmente el cumplimiento de la Política de Selección de Consejeros y se informará de ello en el Informe Anual de Gobierno Corporativo.

- C.1.17 Explique en qué medida la evaluación anual del consejo ha dado lugar a cambios importantes en su organización interna y sobre los procedimientos aplicables a sus actividades:

Descripción modificaciones

N/A

Describa el proceso de evaluación y las áreas evaluadas que ha realizado el consejo de administración auxiliado, en su caso, por un consultor externo, respecto del funcionamiento y la composición del consejo y de sus comisiones y cualquier otra área o aspecto que haya sido objeto de evaluación.

Descripción proceso de evaluación y áreas evaluadas

El Consejo de Administración deberá realizar una autoevaluación anual de su funcionamiento y del de sus Comisiones y Comités, valorando especialmente la diversidad en la composición y competencias del Consejo de Administración, así como el desempeño del Presidente del Consejo de Administración, del primer Ejecutivo de la Sociedad y de los distintos Consejeros, prestando especial atención a los responsables de las distintas Comisiones y Comités del Consejo, y adoptará las medidas oportunas para su mejora. El resultado de la evaluación se consignará en el acta de la sesión o se incorporará a ésta como anexo. Para la realización de la evaluación de las distintas Comisiones y Comités se partirá del informe que éstas eleven al Consejo de Administración, y para la de este último, del que elabore el Comité de Nombramientos y Remuneraciones. Cada tres años, el Consejo de Administración será auxiliado para la realización de la evaluación por un consultor externo, cuya independencia será verificada por el Comité de Nombramientos y Remuneraciones. De esta forma, en el ejercicio 2021, el Consejo contó con el asesoramiento de un externo especializado para su evaluación. Este asesoramiento no tendrá lugar en el ejercicio 2024 dado que, tras la liquidación de la oferta pública voluntaria de adquisición de las acciones de Árima por parte de JSS Real Estate SOCIMI, S.A., que tuvo lugar el 11 de noviembre de 2024, se ha cambiado el Consejo de Administración.

Las relaciones de negocio que el consultor (o cualquier sociedad de su Grupo) mantenga con la Sociedad (o con cualquier sociedad del Grupo) deberán ser desglosadas en el Informe Anual de Gobierno Corporativo. El proceso y las áreas evaluadas serán objeto de descripción en el citado Informe Anual de Gobierno Corporativo.

- C.1.18 Desglose, en aquellos ejercicios en los que la evaluación haya sido auxiliada por un consultor externo, las relaciones de negocio que el consultor o cualquier sociedad de su grupo mantengan con la sociedad o cualquier sociedad de su grupo.

- C.1.19 Indique los supuestos en los que están obligados a dimitir los consejeros.

El artículo 12 del Reglamento del Consejo de Administración regula el cese y separación de los Consejeros:

1. Los consejeros deberán presentar su renuncia al cargo y formalizar su dimisión cuando incurran de forma sobrevenida en cualquiera de los supuestos de incompatibilidad o prohibición para el desempeño del cargo de consejero previstos en la Ley, así como en los siguientes supuestos:

- a) Si se trata de consejeros dominicales, cuando el accionista a cuya instancia han sido nombrados transmite íntegramente la participación que tenía en la Sociedad o la reduzca hasta un nivel que exija la reducción del número de sus consejeros dominicales.
- b) Cuando el propio Consejo así lo solicite por mayoría de, al menos, dos tercios (2/3) de sus miembros, por haber infringido sus obligaciones como consejero, previa propuesta o informe de la Comisión de Nombramiento y Retribuciones, o cuando su permanencia en el Consejo pueda poner en riesgo el crédito y reputación de la Sociedad.
2. En el caso de que una persona física representante de una persona jurídica consejero incurriera en alguno de los supuestos de incompatibilidad o prohibición para el desempeño del cargo de consejero previstos en la Ley, aquélla deberá ser sustituida de inmediato por la persona jurídica consejero.
3. El Consejo de Administración no podrá proponer el cese de ningún consejero independiente antes del cumplimiento del periodo estatuario para el que hubiera sido nombrado, salvo cuando concurre justa causa, apreciada por el Consejo previo informe de la Comisión de Nombramientos y Retribuciones. En particular, se entenderá que existe justa causa cuando el consejero hubiera incumplido los deberes inherentes a su cargo, incumplido alguna recomendación aplicable en materia de gobierno corporativo o incurrido en algunas de las circunstancias que impiden su nombramiento como consejero independiente. No obstante lo anterior, también podrá proponerse el cese de consejeros independientes de resultas de ofertas públicas de adquisición, fusiones u otras operaciones societarias similares que supongan un cambio en la estructura de capital de la Sociedad cuando tales cambios en la estructura del Consejo vengan propiciados por el criterio de proporcionalidad señalado en el apartado 3 del artículo 9 anterior.

4. Cuando ya sea por dimisión o por otro motivo, un consejero cese en su cargo antes del término de su mandato, explicará las razones en una carta que remitirá a todos los miembros del Consejo, sin perjuicio de que dicho cese se comunique como hecho relevante y que del motivo del cese se dé cuenta en el Informe Anual de Gobierno Corporativo. En especial, en el caso de que la dimisión del consejero se deba a que el Consejo haya adoptado decisiones significativas o reiteradas sobre las que el consejero haya hecho constar sendas reservas y como consecuencia de ello optara por dimitir, en su dimisión se hará constar expresamente esta circunstancia. Esta previsión alcanza también al secretario del Consejo, aunque no tenga la condición de consejero.

5. Sin perjuicio de todo lo anterior, la separación de los consejeros podrá ser acordada en cualquier momento por la Junta General, aun cuando no esté previsto en el orden del día de la misma.

C.1.28 Explique, si los hubiera, los mecanismos establecidos por el consejo de administración para que las cuentas anuales que el consejo de administración presente a la junta general de accionistas se elaboren de conformidad con la normativa contable.

La Sociedad, siguiendo con el desarrollo de un riguroso sistema de control interno, elaboró un Manual de Gestión del Sistema de Control Interno de la Información Financiera (SCIIF), que fue aprobado por el Consejo de Administración de la Sociedad en el ejercicio 2021. Dicho Manual de SCIIF establece las bases para el mantenimiento, revisión, reporte y supervisión de la información financiera de Árima, asegurando que los riesgos por errores, omisiones o fraude se controlan adecuadamente, ya sea por prevención, detección, mitigación, compensación o corrección, proporcionando una seguridad razonable de que los controles internos funcionan de manera efectiva y contribuyen a garantizar la fiabilidad de la información financiera de la Sociedad. El SCIF de la Sociedad fue verificado por el auditor externo obteniendo un resultado satisfactorio. Por otro lado, las cuentas anuales se someten a un proceso de auditoría. En este sentido, el artículo 40 del Reglamento del Consejo de Administración regula las relaciones con los auditores de cuentas externos en los siguientes términos:

1. Las relaciones del Consejo de Administración con los auditores externos de la Sociedad se encauzarán a través de la Comisión de Auditoría y Control.

2. El Consejo de Administración se abstendrá de contratar aquellas firmas de auditoría en las que los honorarios que prevea satisfacer la compañía y las empresas de su grupo, por todos los conceptos, sean superiores al cinco (5%) por ciento de los ingresos de la firma de auditoría en España durante el ejercicio inmediatamente anterior.

3. El Consejo de Administración procurará formular definitivamente las cuentas de manera tal que no haya lugar a salvedades o reservas en el informe de auditoría, y en los supuestos excepcionales en que existan, tanto el presidente de la Comisión de Auditoría y Control como los auditores expliquen con claridad a los accionistas el contenido y alcance de dichas reservas o salvedades. De acuerdo a lo anterior, la Comisión de Auditoría supervisa tanto las conclusiones y los estados financieros obtenidos por el departamento financiero una vez ejecutado el proceso de cierre financiero, así como las conclusiones obtenidas por el auditor externo tras su proceso de auditoría, verificando ambos la aplicación de la normativa contable en vigor en cada momento. Esta labor de supervisión se realiza con anterioridad a la celebración del consejo en el que se formulan las cuentas anuales por parte del Consejo de Administración de forma que el nivel de seguridad sobre los estados financieros emitidos sea total.

El artículo 35 del Reglamento del Consejo de Administración establece en su apartado quinto las siguientes funciones de la Comisión de Auditoría en relación con el auditor externo:

(i) elevar al Consejo de Administración las propuestas de selección, nombramiento, reelección y sustitución del auditor externo (debiendo tratarse de firmas internacionales de reconocido prestigio), así como las condiciones de su contratación;

(ii) recibir regularmente del auditor externo información sobre el plan de auditoría y los resultados de su ejecución, y verificar que la dirección tiene en cuenta sus recomendaciones;

(iii) asegurar la independencia del auditor externo y, a tal efecto, que la Sociedad comunique como hecho relevante a la CNMV el cambio de auditor y lo acompañe de una declaración sobre la eventual existencia de desacuerdos con el auditor saliente y, si hubieran existido de su contenido, y que en caso de renuncia del auditor externo examine las circunstancias que la hubieran motivado.

La Comisión de Auditoría y Control deberá establecer las oportunas relaciones con los auditores o sociedades de auditoría para recibir información sobre aquellas cuestiones que puedan poner en riesgo la independencia de éstos, para su examen por la Comisión de Auditoría y Control, y cualesquier otras relacionadas con el proceso de desarrollo de la auditoría de cuentas, así como aquellas otras comunicaciones previstas en la legislación de auditoría de cuentas y en las normas de auditoría. En todo caso, deberán recibir anualmente de los auditores o sociedades de auditoría la confirmación escrita de su independencia frente a la entidad o entidades vinculadas a ésta directa o indirectamente, así como la información de los servicios adicionales de cualquier clase prestados a estas entidades por los citados auditores o sociedades, o por las personas o entidades vinculados a éstos de acuerdo con lo dispuesto en la Ley 22/2015, de 20 de julio, de Auditoría de Cuentas;

(iv) favorecer que el auditor de la Sociedad asuma la responsabilidad de las auditorías de las empresas que, en su caso, integran el grupo;

(v) en caso de renuncia del auditor externo, examinar las circunstancias que la hubieran motivado;

(vi) velar por que la retribución del auditor externo por su trabajo no comprometa su calidad ni su independencia;

(vii) asegurar que el auditor externo mantenga anualmente una reunión con el pleno del Consejo de Administración para informarle sobre el trabajo realizado y sobre la evolución de la situación contable y de riesgos de la Sociedad;

(viii) asegurar que la Sociedad y el auditor externo respetan las normas vigentes sobre la prestación de servicios distintos de la auditoría, los límites a la concentración del negocio del auditor y, en general, las demás normas sobre independencia de los auditores.

Asimismo, la Comisión de Auditoría deberá emitir anualmente, con carácter previo a la emisión del informe de auditoría de cuentas, un informe en el que se expresará una opinión sobre la independencia de los auditores de cuentas o sociedades de auditoría. Este informe deberá pronunciarse, en todo caso, sobre la prestación de los servicios adicionales a que hace referencia el punto (iii) del apartado b) anterior.

E. SISTEMAS DE CONTROL Y GESTIÓN DE RIESGOS

E.1. Explique el alcance del Sistema de Control y Gestión de Riesgos financieros y no financieros de la sociedad, incluidos los de naturaleza fiscal.

El Consejo de Administración es el órgano competente para determinar la Política de control y gestión de riesgos, identificando los principales riesgos de la Sociedad, implantar los sistemas de control interno y de información adecuados, y llevar a cabo el seguimiento periódico de los mismos. En virtud de lo anterior, el Consejo de Administración de la Sociedad aprobó la Política de control y gestión de riesgos y el Manual de gestión de riesgos. De esta forma se establece un procedimiento sistemático y preventivo, alineado con los estándares internacionales de referencia en materia de gestión de riesgos, incluyendo los fiscales, y liderado por la Dirección para abordar los riesgos mediante la previsión, la prevención y la detección de los mismos. El Sistema de Gestión del Riesgo tiene en cuenta tanto las características propias de la Sociedad, como aquéllas propias de los entornos en los que desarrolla sus actividades tanto a nivel económico, como geográfico y regulatorio. La política y estrategia de la gestión de riesgos es responsabilidad del Consejo de Administración. No obstante, todos los miembros de la organización son partícipes y responsables de asegurar el éxito del Sistema de Gestión de Riesgos.

E.2. Identifique los órganos de la sociedad responsables de la elaboración y ejecución del Sistema de Control y Gestión de Riesgos financieros y no financieros, incluido el fiscal.

El Consejo de Administración de la Sociedad es responsable de la determinación de la Política de control y gestión de riesgos, incluidos los fiscales, y la implantación y supervisión de los sistemas internos de información y control. Para el desarrollo de estas funciones, el Consejo de Administración de la Sociedad cuenta con la colaboración de la Comisión de Auditoría y Control como órgano consultivo (el artículo 43 de los Estatutos de la Sociedad establece que el Consejo de Administración deberá crear y mantener en su seno y con carácter permanente e interno, un Comité de Auditoría y Control / el artículo 44 de los Estatutos de la Sociedad atribuye a la Comisión de Auditoría y Control la función primordial de servir de apoyo al Consejo de Administración en sus cometidos de vigilancia, mediante la revisión periódica del proceso de elaboración de la información económico-financiera, de sus controles internos y de la independencia del Auditor externo), el cual a su vez, se apoya en la Función de control y gestión de riesgos, que ha de velar por el buen funcionamiento del sistema de control interno y gestión de riesgos.

E.3. Señale los principales riesgos, financieros y no financieros, incluidos los fiscales y en la medida que sean significativos los derivados de la corrupción (entendidos estos últimos con el alcance del Real Decreto Ley 18/2017), que pueden afectar a la consecución de los objetivos de negocio.

A continuación, se presenta un esquema, no excluyente, de los principales riesgos, todos ellos cubiertos por el Sistema de Gestión y Control de Riesgos establecido, que se derivan de la actividad inmobiliaria y patrimonial de la Sociedad.

1. Riesgos financieros

a) Riesgo de mercado.

Riesgo de tipo de interés. El riesgo de tipo de interés de la Sociedad surge de la deuda financiera. La Sociedad contrata en ocasiones permutas de tipo de interés para cubrirse de este riesgo.

b) Riesgo de crédito.

La Sociedad no tiene concentraciones significativas de riesgo de crédito, entendiéndose como el impacto que puede tener en la cuenta de pérdidas y ganancias el fallido de las cuentas por cobrar. La empresa tiene políticas que aseguran que las ventas y los arrendamientos son efectuadas a clientes con un histórico de crédito apropiado.

c) Riesgo de liquidez.

La Dirección financiera de la Sociedad es responsable de gestionar el riesgo de liquidez para hacer frente a los pagos ya comprometidos y/o a los compromisos derivados de nuevas inversiones. Para ello, analiza los flujos de caja esperados.

2. Riesgos de mercado

La Sociedad minimiza este tipo de riesgos mediante su estrategia y modelo de negocio. Árima invierte en activos inmobiliarios prime en los segmentos de oficinas, logística, principalmente, con fuerte potencial de revalorización, en zonas consolidadas. La Sociedad tiene implantado un plan de negocio a largo plazo que se centra en la creación de valor a través de la gestión activa y el reposicionamiento de la cartera, con especial atención a la sostenibilidad medioambiental.

3. Riesgos económicos

Estos riesgos se gestionan en las adquisiciones mediante meticulosos análisis de las operaciones, examinando y previendo los problemas que podrían surgir en un futuro, así como planteando las posibles soluciones a los mismos. En las enajenaciones el principal riesgo está en la falta de cobro de los precios pactados en los contratos, como consecuencia de incumplimiento por parte de los compradores. Estos riesgos se minimizan mediante la constitución de garantías de todo tipo que permitan, llegado el caso, la percepción del precio total o la recuperación de la propiedad objeto de enajenación.

INFORME ANUAL DE GOBIERNO CORPORATIVO DE LAS SOCIEDADES ANÓNIMAS COTIZADAS

4. Riesgos en materias de índole legal y fiscal

Las actividades de la Sociedad están sujetas a disposiciones legales, fiscales y a requisitos urbanísticos. Las administraciones locales, autonómicas, nacionales y europeas pueden imponer sanciones por el incumplimiento de estas normas y requisitos. Un cambio en este entorno legal y fiscal puede afectar a la planificación general de las actividades de la Sociedad la cual, a través de los correspondientes departamentos internos y con ayuda de sus asesores legales y fiscales, vigila, analiza y, en su caso, toma las medidas precisas al respecto.

Los riesgos asociados al cumplimiento de la legislación específica serían los siguientes:

a) Reclamaciones judiciales y extrajudiciales. La actividad de la Sociedad puede originar que se emprendan acciones judiciales en relación con los inmuebles alquilados, aún derivados de actuaciones de terceros contratados por la Sociedad (arquitectos, ingenieros, contratistas y subcontratistas de la construcción). Para mitigar este tipo de riesgo se cuenta con diversos seguros de responsabilidad civil y de daños.

b) Responsabilidades de la Sociedad derivadas de su calificación como SOCIMI. La Sociedad tiene que cumplir en todas sus actuaciones con la Ley 11/2009, por la que se regulan las SOCIMI. Derivado de ello, la Sociedad realiza un seguimiento constante y coteja que sus actividades cumplan con la legislación vigente en esta materia.

5. Riesgos en materia de prevención del blanqueo de capitales e infracciones monetarias

Estos riesgos se controlan mediante la prevención y control de las operaciones llevadas a cabo por la Sociedad, de conformidad con la legislación aplicable.

6. Riesgos en materia de protección de datos de carácter personal

Estos riesgos se controlan mediante cláusulas especiales y normalizadas a incluir en los contratos en diferentes situaciones que, ajustándose a la norma que regula esta materia, permiten limitar e incluso extinguir cualquier tipo de responsabilidad que pudiera afectar a la Sociedad.

7. Riesgos en materia de Protección de los Consumidores y Usuarios

La Sociedad cumple con las exigencias de las diferentes normas estatales y autonómicas en materia de consumidores y usuarios. Además, la Sociedad dispone de un Reglamento Interno de Conducta, centrado en materias relativas a los mercados de valores.

El Reglamento Interno de Conducta, en sus apartados IV y V, determina los criterios de comportamiento y de actuación que deben seguir sus destinatarios en relación con los valores e instrumentos afectados, con la información privilegiada y relevante y con los documentos confidenciales, para favorecer la transparencia en el desarrollo de las actividades y la adecuada información y protección de los inversores.

E.4. Identifique si la entidad cuenta con niveles de tolerancia al riesgo, incluido el fiscal.

La tolerancia al riesgo en Árima queda definida como el nivel de Riesgo que la Sociedad está dispuesta a aceptar para conseguir las metas estratégicas establecidas. La tolerancia al riesgo queda configurada por la estrategia y es consensuada por el Consejo de Administración. Asimismo, queda definida como el nivel de variación que la Sociedad acepta en la consecución de un objetivo. Es, por tanto, el umbral aceptable para cada riesgo y objetivo. La tolerancia al riesgo debe ser actualizada de forma periódica por los encargados de reportar de cada departamento y adecuadamente comunicada al supervisor de cumplimiento.

E.5. Indique qué riesgos, financieros y no financieros, incluidos los fiscales, se han materializado durante el ejercicio.

Durante el ejercicio no se ha materializado ningún riesgo de los descritos anteriormente.

E.6. Explique los planes de respuesta y supervisión para los principales riesgos de la entidad, incluidos los fiscales, así como los procedimientos seguidos por la compañía para asegurar que el consejo de administración da respuesta a los nuevos desafíos que se presentan.

El Sistema de Gestión de Riesgos funciona de forma integral, continua y transversal, y atiende a la gestión de todos los riesgos prioritarios, tanto internos como externos. Para ello, el enfoque adoptado para la gestión de riesgos considera de forma alineada los siguientes elementos básicos: ambiente de control, objetivos, identificación y gestión de riesgos y de actividades de control. Una vez evaluado un riesgo y una vez consideradas las actividades de control que se llevan a cabo para su mitigación, si el nivel de riesgo no se encuentra en la zona de confort, se requiere una acción adicional (Plan de Acción) para reducir el nivel de riesgo deseado. Los Responsables de riesgos son responsables de diseñar, implantar y actualizar los Planes de Acción correspondientes, considerando en todo momento las opiniones y comentarios del Responsable de la función de control y gestión de riesgos y de la Comisión de Auditoría y Control. El objetivo de estos Planes de Acción es proporcionar la respuesta que mejor ubique el riesgo dentro de los objetivos previamente establecidos, complementando las actividades de control ya existentes. Una vez definidos los Planes de Acción, los Responsables de riesgos los comunican al Responsable de la Función de control y gestión de riesgos quién, en caso de considerarlo, tras un análisis previo, los eleva a la Comisión de Auditoría y Control para su conocimiento y aprobación y, en última instancia, al Consejo de Administración.

Informe, al menos, de:

F.2.1 Cuáles son las principales características del proceso de identificación de riesgos, incluyendo los de error o fraude, en cuanto a:

- Si el proceso existe y está documentado:

El Consejo de Administración aprobó un Manual de Gestión del Sistema de Control Interno de la Información Financiera. Este Sistema identifica los riesgos de error, omisiones o fraude en la información financiera mediante la matriz de scoping (o matriz de alcance) del SCIIF. A través de esta matriz, se identifican qué cuentas y desgloses tienen un riesgo significativo asociado y cuyo impacto potencial en la información financiera pueda ser material. El fin último ha sido la implantación de un sistema de control que contribuya a la mitigación de riesgos para el logro de los objetivos financieros. Asimismo, la información financiera emitida es revisada por los Auditores de la Sociedad.

- Si el proceso cubre la totalidad de objetivos de la información financiera, (existencia y ocurrencia; integridad; valoración; presentación, desglose y comparabilidad; y derechos y obligaciones), si se actualiza y con qué frecuencia:

Con el fin último de proporcionar seguridad respecto a la fiabilidad de la información financiera que se facilita al mercado, el Sistema de Control Interno de la Información Financiera de Árima persigue los siguientes objetivos de control:

- F.3.1 Procedimientos de revisión y autorización de la información financiera y la descripción del SCIIIF, a publicar en los mercados de valores, indicando sus responsables, así como de documentación descriptiva de los flujos de actividades y controles (incluyendo los relativos a riesgo de fraude) de los distintos tipos de transacciones que puedan afectar de modo material a los estados financieros, incluyendo el procedimiento de cierre contable y la revisión específica de los juicios, estimaciones, valoraciones y proyecciones relevantes

La Sociedad dispone de un procedimiento interno de revisión de la información financiera (incluyendo cuentas anuales, estados financieros de períodos intermedios, el Informe de Gestión y el Informe Anual de Gobierno Corporativo) que identifica los procesos materiales y tutela el proceso desde que dicha información es generada por el Departamento Financiero, hasta que es aprobada por la Comisión de Auditoría y Control y, finalmente, por el Consejo de Administración antes de su publicación. Este proceso se encuentra reflejado en el Manual de Gestión del Sistema de

Control Interno de la Información Financiera aprobado por el Consejo de Administración, el cual establece tanto las responsabilidades como los flujos de las actividades de control sobre los subprocesos materiales que dan lugar a la emisión de la información financiera.

- F.3.2 Políticas y procedimientos de control interno sobre los sistemas de información (entre otras, sobre seguridad de acceso, control de cambios, operación de los mismos, continuidad operativa y segregación de funciones) que soporten los procesos relevantes de la entidad en relación a la elaboración y publicación de la información financiera.

Las políticas y procedimientos de control interno asociados a los sistemas de información son definidas por la Dirección de la Sociedad. Los principales riesgos contemplados por la Sociedad, y a los que se da respuesta, afectan a la seguridad física (copias de seguridad, mantenimiento y acceso a servidores, etc.), seguridad lógica (controles de acceso, procedimiento de altas y bajas, protección frente a virus y demás malware, etc.), segregación de funciones suficiente, registro y trazabilidad de la información, privacidad (LOPD), desarrollo y mantenimiento de sistemas. La Sociedad es asesorada por un tercero experto en sistemas el cual lleva a cabo auditorías de seguridad periódicas que cubren, entre otros, todos estos aspectos. Asimismo, la Sociedad, de forma proactiva y periódica, se somete a auditorías externas de IT, estableciendo en su caso planes de acción, y de cuyos resultados informa al Consejo de Administración. Por otro lado, el Consejo de Administración ha aprobado un Plan de continuidad de negocio para minimizar el riesgo de interrupción de la actividad por cualquier causa.

- F.3.3 Políticas y procedimientos de control interno destinados a supervisar la gestión de las actividades subcontratadas a terceros, así como de aquellos aspectos de evaluación, cálculo o valoración encomendados a expertos independientes, que puedan afectar de modo material a los estados financieros.

La actividad subcontratada a terceros que tiene un mayor impacto sobre los estados financieros corresponde a la valoración de activos por parte de un experto independiente. El procedimiento al respecto implantado por la Sociedad recoge fundamentalmente las recomendaciones de la CNMV a las sociedades de valoración e inmobiliarias cotizadas en relación con la valoración de inmuebles. Por otro lado, los resultados obtenidos son siempre contrastados con las estimaciones de los expertos internos de Árima, los cuales supervisan el proceso de valoración. Asimismo, las conclusiones obtenidas son siempre revisadas por los Auditores de la Sociedad. El Departamento de Administración y Finanzas de la Sociedad se encarga de definir y actualizar las políticas contables y de responder a las dudas y consultas al respecto.

- F.4.2 Mecanismos de captura y preparación de la información financiera con formatos homogéneos, de aplicación y utilización por todas las unidades de la entidad o del grupo, que soporten los estados financieros principales y las notas, así como la información que se detalle sobre el SCIIF.

Las políticas contables definidas por los Administradores de la Sociedad son la base para la elaboración y preparación de la información financiera tanto de la Sociedad como de sus sociedades dependientes. Estas políticas contables garantizan la aplicación de los mismos criterios en la preparación de la información y la homogeneidad en su presentación.

INFORME ANUAL DE GOBIERNO CORPORATIVO DE LAS SOCIEDADES ANÓNIMAS COTIZADAS

Asimismo se informará del alcance de la evaluación del SCIIF realizada en el ejercicio y del procedimiento por el cual el encargado de ejecutar la evaluación comunica sus resultados, si la entidad cuenta con un plan de acción que detalle las eventuales medidas correctoras, y si se ha considerado su impacto en la información financiera.

Tal y como se indica en el artículo 44 de los Estatutos de la Sociedad, a la Comisión de Auditoría y Control le corresponde, entre otras funciones, la revisión periódica del proceso de elaboración de la información económico-financiera, de sus controles internos y de la independencia del auditor externo. En el plano de organización de los trabajos del SCIIF, la Comisión de Auditoría y Control es responsable de aprobar qué y cuándo supervisar y cómo evaluar la supervisión SCIIF (aprobación del Plan de trabajo y de supervisión del SCIIF).

Asimismo, la Comisión de Auditoría y Control cuenta con el apoyo de la Dirección financiera y del Responsable del SCIIF, el cual elabora un informe sobre el estado de cumplimiento y efectividad del SCIIF, cuyos resultados reporta a la Comisión de Auditoría y Control (la cual los elevará al Consejo de Administración, cuando lo considere necesario). El alcance del Sistema de Control Interno de la Información Financiera deberá revisarse con periodicidad anual antes de fijar el calendario de reporte para el siguiente ejercicio.

Por otro lado, la conclusión de los Auditores de la Sociedad sobre la información financiera proporcionada es satisfactoria.

También podrá proponerse la separación de consejeros independientes como consecuencia de ofertas públicas de adquisición, fusiones u otras operaciones corporativas similares que supongan un cambio en la estructura de capital de la sociedad, cuando tales cambios en la estructura del consejo de administración vengan propiciados por el criterio de proporcionalidad señalado en la recomendación 16.

57. Que se circunscriban a los consejeros ejecutivos las remuneraciones variables ligadas al rendimiento de la sociedad y al desempeño personal, así como la remuneración mediante entrega de acciones, opciones o derechos sobre acciones o instrumentos referenciados al valor de la acción y los sistemas de ahorro a largo plazo tales como planes de pensiones, sistemas de jubilación u otros sistemas de previsión social.

Se podrá contemplar la entrega de acciones como remuneración a los consejeros no ejecutivos cuando se condicione a que las mantengan hasta su cese como consejeros. Lo anterior no será de aplicación a las acciones que el consejero necesite enajenar, en su caso, para satisfacer los costes relacionados con su adquisición.

N/A la Sociedad no tiene consejeros ejecutivos.

58. Que en caso de remuneraciones variables, las políticas retributivas incorporen los límites y las cautelas técnicas precisas para asegurar que tales remuneraciones guardan relación con el rendimiento profesional de sus beneficiarios y no derivan solamente de la evolución general de los mercados o del sector de actividad de la compañía o de otras circunstancias similares.

Y, en particular, que los componentes variables de las remuneraciones:

- Estén vinculados a criterios de rendimiento que sean predeterminados y medibles y que dichos criterios consideren el riesgo asumido para la obtención de un resultado.
- Promuevan la sostenibilidad de la empresa e incluyan criterios no financieros que sean adecuados para la creación de valor a largo plazo, como el cumplimiento de las reglas y los procedimientos internos de la sociedad y de sus políticas para el control y gestión de riesgos.
- Se configuren sobre la base de un equilibrio entre el cumplimiento de objetivos a corto, medio y largo plazo, que permitan remunerar el rendimiento por un desempeño continuado durante un período de tiempo suficiente para apreciar su contribución a la creación sostenible de valor, de forma que los elementos de medida de ese rendimiento no giren únicamente en torno a hechos puntuales, ocasionales o extraordinarios.

- 59. Que el pago de los componentes variables de la remuneración quede sujeto a una comprobación suficiente de que se han cumplido de modo efectivo las condiciones de rendimiento o de otro tipo previamente establecidas. Las entidades incluirán en el informe anual de remuneraciones de los consejeros los criterios en cuanto al tiempo requerido y métodos para tal comprobación en función de la naturaleza y características de cada componente variable.

Que, adicionalmente, las entidades valoren el establecimiento de una cláusula de reducción ('malus') basada en el diferimiento por un período suficiente del pago de una parte de los componentes variables que implique su pérdida total o parcial en el caso de que con anterioridad al momento del pago se produzca algún evento que lo haga aconsejable.

- 60. Que las remuneraciones relacionadas con los resultados de la sociedad tomen en cuenta las eventuales salvedades que consten en el informe del auditor externo y minoren dichos resultados.

- 61. Que un porcentaje relevante de la remuneración variable de los consejeros ejecutivos esté vinculado a la entrega de acciones o de instrumentos financieros referenciados a su valor.

- 62. Que una vez atribuidas las acciones, las opciones o instrumentos financieros correspondientes a los sistemas retributivos, los consejeros ejecutivos no puedan transferir su titularidad o ejercitarios hasta transcurrido un plazo de al menos tres años.

Se exceptúa el caso en el que el consejero mantenga, en el momento de la transmisión o ejercicio, una exposición económica neta a la variación del precio de las acciones por un valor de mercado equivalente a un importe de al menos dos veces su remuneración fija anual mediante la titularidad de acciones, opciones u otros instrumentos financieros.

Lo anterior no será de aplicación a las acciones que el consejero necesite enajenar para satisfacer los costes relacionados con su adquisición o, previa apreciación favorable de la comisión de nombramientos y retribuciones, para hacer frente a situaciones extraordinarias sobrevenidas que lo requieran.

63. Que los acuerdos contractuales incluyan una cláusula que permita a la sociedad reclamar el reembolso de los componentes variables de la remuneración cuando el pago no haya estado ajustado a las condiciones de rendimiento o cuando se hayan abonado atendiendo a datos cuya inexactitud quede acreditada con posterioridad.

64. Que los pagos por resolución o extinción del contrato no superen un importe equivalente a dos años de la retribución total anual y que no se abonen hasta que la sociedad haya podido comprobar que el consejero ha cumplido con los criterios o condiciones establecidos para su percepción.

A efectos de esta recomendación, entre los pagos por resolución o extinción contractual se considerarán cualesquiera abonos cuyo devengo u obligación de pago surja como consecuencia o con ocasión de la extinción de la relación contractual que vinculaba al consejero con la sociedad, incluidos los importes no previamente consolidados de sistemas de ahorro a largo plazo y las cantidades que se abonen en virtud de pactos de no competencia post-contractual.
